Business Opportunities.

52,214 ACRES—THE OWNERS OF 52,214 acres of famous tract of good land in Santa Barbara county will receive private offers for its purchase, as a whole, at a fair price, upon easy terms of payment, and at a moderate rate of interest. The land lies in a single compact body, near the coast. The soil is deep, virgin and fertile. The title is absolutely good, and conveyed with a sure grower of grass. The grant has long been known as a reliable and profitable stock ranch. It now has upon it some thousands of fine cattle and sheep. These can be bought with the land, or not, as the purchasers may prefer. The land is susceptible of subdivision into 150 or 200 small farms. It is accessible, and will shortly be reached by the Southern Pacific Branch Railway. A minute description will be furnished, and a personal examination, on application. Here is an opportunity for capitalists to make a large, safe and profitable operation. Principals only need apply to S. D., care of COL. H. G. OTIS, Times Office, Los Angeles, who has been requested to supply information to inquirers.

A FIRST-CLASS SAN FRANCISCO restaurant-keeper, of 12 years' experience, wishes a partner with some capital. Address A. A., box 35, Times office.

A Sensational Divorce Case Before the Courts.

A Prominent Ohio Man Leaves His Young Wife, Makes a Fortune in Los Angeles and Attempts to Get a Divorce.

That this city is full of thieves no one can deny. That the police are unable to cope with them is illustrated each day. Hardly a day passes that a bold robbery is not committed and yet an arrest is barely ever made. The thieves have become so bold that they walk right into a store under the very nose of police officers and commit their depredations in a manner that would put the boldest thief who ever cracked a crib in New York to shame. To illustrate their gall it might not be out of place in this connection to give the experience of a well-known officer who was doing detective work a few days ago. As soon as the officer was promoted to the dignity of a detective he cast about for a "stool" or two. A "stool" is supposed to be a criminal who is anxious to reform, to all appearances, and is used by all detectives in hunting up his old pals, and other criminals who are not at all anxious to give up their bad habits and become church members. As a rule the stool is just about as low in the scale of humanity as a man can well sink, but he is very useful to a thief-taker who overlooks a great many of his faults and gets fooled in seven or eight cases out of ten. This particular officer gathered up two or three of these people and put them to work. They were promised money if they would dig up something, and they went out after promising the detective that they would soon give him something to work on, and they did. They went out and burglarized two or three dwelling-houses, and the next day when the robbery was reported to the police station, the stools turned up as big as life, and informed the new detective that they thought they knew who the thieves were, for the reason that they had overheard them putting up the job on the night of the robbery. They were informed by the detective that several hundred dollars' worth of clothing had been stolen, and that the losers would be willing to pay quite a sum for the return of the property. The stools started out, and returned shortly and told the detective that they had located the property, and were ready to turn it up as soon as the money was forthcoming. The detective got the coin, and paid it to them as soon as they showed him where the goods had been secured.

"Now," said one of the stools, "we will put up a job on the men who stole these goods, if you will let us bury them. You may go with us while we bury them, and then we will fix an hour for them to go and get the goods, and you can be near by, so that you will have a chance to pounce down on them while they are digging up the goods. The detective thought it a good idea, and the goods were buried in due form, etc. The stools went off with the money in their pockets, and were to see the thieves that night, and report to the detective the next day. At that time they reported and told him that the thieves would dig the goods up at a certain hour. The officer went to the place and watched several hours, but the thieves did not show up, and after nearly freezing he thought he would see if the clothes had been molested. He turned pale when he opened the hole and found that the goods had been removed. Ever since that night he has been looking for his stools, but they had left

ORGANIZED LABOR.

FACTS ABOUT LABOR UNIONS IN LOS ANGELES.

Officers and Meeting Places—Forms of Organization—State of the Labor Market—Membership and Wages—Benefits and Insurance.

The labor element of Los Angeles is pretty thoroughly organized. Almost all the trades and labor callings are represented by societies or unions, in addition to which the city contains a central labor body, known as the Trades' Council. THE TIMES herewith presents a partial roster and a brief account of the labor organizations of this city:

CARPENTERS.

Los Angeles Union No. 56, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, is, numerically, considered the most powerful labor society on the Pacific Coast. It numbers nearly 1000 members, about 900 of whom are in good standing. This union meets every Tuesday evening at G.A.R. Hall, McDonald block, Main street. Its officers are: President, E. J. Cole; vice-president, J. Jones; corresponding secretary, Mr. Cross; financial secretary and traveling agent, Arthur Vinette; treasurer, J. Wesley Wilson; warden, Mr. Bell. This union is beneficial as well as protective. The benefits are: For the sick, $5 per week; when a member becomes totally disabled he is entitled to draw the sum of $300; there is also a funeral benefit of $50, which goes to the wife and family or other heirs of the deceased. Wages, $3.50 and $4. Trade dull.

BRICKLAYERS.

The Bricklayers' Protective Association of Los Angeles numbers 100 men, and meets every Thursday evening at Hibernia Hall, Downey block. John Cunningham is president and M. W. Thompson secretary of the association. This being mid-winter, trade at present is dull. Bricklayers, however, say that the outlook for their business is exceedingly bright. Wages at present are $5 per day of nine hours. The Los Angeles Bricklayers' Protective Association pays no benefits. As yet it has not been admitted to the International Union. At its next meeting, Thursday night, steps are to be taken to secure membership in the international body, and after its admission it will be a beneficial, as well as a protective, union. Fully one-half of the bricklayers of this city are non-members of the local association. Yet these men must not be regarded as "scabs;" they are internationals, and have refrained from joining the local association until such time as that association came under the jurisdiction of the International Union. Leading bricklayers speak with much earnestness and feeling of what they are pleased to term the "hurried and slipshod" manner in which some buildings have been erected. As a remedy for this dangerous evil, there is a very general sentiment among men of all the building crafts in favor of the appointment of a building inspector. Carpenters state that the tendency to economize in lumber tends to produce shoddy buildings, and bricklayers aver that the desire to economize in brick, cement and mortar, tends in the same direction. They also complain of the contract system. To save time, which to a contractor is money, the men are constantly hurried, thereby being prevented from the careful and plentiful use of mortar; and that because of this hungry hurrying of workmen, that important work known to the bricklayers' parlance as "slushing" is almost wholly neglected.

CIGAR-MAKERS.

The Los Angeles Cigar-makers' Local Union No. 225 of the Cigar-makers' International Union of America—43 members—meets at Hibernia hall, Downey block, on the evening of the second Tuesday of each month. The Los Angeles union furnishes the following statistics, which, if correct, are curious and interesting: The city of Los Angeles consumes $250,000 worth of cigars annually, of which only about $36,000 are manufactured here; leaving $214,000 to be sent out of Los Angeles to pay for cigars manufactured in the East and in San Francisco. The bulk of this money goes to San Francisco, and the greater part of it reaches the great Chinese cigar manufacturers of the Bay City. The officers of the Los Angeles Cigarmakers' Union are: President, W. J. Ramsey; vice-president, C. W. Stiegenwald; recording secretary, Lewis Yeager; financial secretary, H. E. Martin; treasurer, Fred Heizman; sergeant-at-arms, Joe Eberly. The union is a beneficial society as well as a protective union. The manner in which this union pays benefits is a little curious. A sick member receives $5 per week for eight weeks, after which he receives $3 per week for eight more weeks. This exhausts the constitutional allowance for the current year, but the union carries the sick brother from meeting to meeting to the end of the year by voting small sums. If, at the commencement of the new year, the brother is still unable to work, he again comes under the constitutional provision for the payment of benefits, and the dual eight weeks' $5 and $3 benefit arrangement is repeated. In this manner the sick man may be carried as long as he and his union live.

This union also has a "loan card" system, whereby those who are forced to travel in search of employment may borrow a sum not to exceed $24. This sum may be sent back to the union that issued the card upon which it was drawn, or it may be paid into any subordinate union in America. There is also a funeral benefit of $50. Apprentices must serve at least three years, and proof of such service must be made before union membership can be gained.

PRINTERS.

Los Angeles Union No. 174, of the International Typographical Union, meets at Painter's Hall on the first Sunday of each month. The International Union has jurisdiction over the United States, Canada and the Hawaiian Islands. The officers of Los Angeles Union are: President, Miles L. Farland; vice-president, F. N. Marrion; secretary, C. M. Waggoner; treasurer, O. T. Thomas; reading clerk, Miss Bernice Taylor; sergeant-at-arms, Miss A. P. Cornwall. Executive Committee: W. M. Hawkins, D. W. Moore, J. K. Hamill, Robert Buckingham and L. G. A. Straube. Board of Application: M. K. McLaughlin, G. E. McClellan, W. W. Ferguson, Alex. Rose, and H. C. F. Smith. Trade Council Delegates: F. B. Colver, Henry Fielding, E. S. Livermore, D. W. Moore and E. H. Picker. Condition of trade, good. Wages, night work, 50 cents per 1000 ems. Day work, 45 cents per 1000 ems. No constitutional provision for benefits other than $75 for funeral. Every printing office contains what is known as a chapel. The province of the chapel is to regulate the domestic affairs of its own office, but it can do nothing that conflicts with the constitution of the local or International Union.

PRESSMEN.

The Los Angeles Pressmen's Union No. 30, numbers 50 men. Its officers are: President, George Hare; vice-president, Frank K. Ellery; secretary, Henry Bruning; treasurer, D. C. Scott. Wages: Night pressmen, $30 per week; feeders, $3 per night; day pressmen, $21 to $25 per week. The union pays $5 per week sick benefit and $50 funeral benefit. The Los Angeles Pressmens' Union holds a charter from the International Typographical Union.

MOULDERS.

Los Angeles Local Union No. 179, National Union of American Moulders, 60 members, meets every second week at Engineers' Hall, San Fernando street, near Southern Pacific depot. John Taylor, president; state of trade, good; wages, $3.50 per day, or 35 cents per hour.

HOD-CARRIERS.

The Plasterers' and Hod-carriers' Union of Los Angeles numbers 100 men and meets at Hibernia Hall every second Monday. The officers of the union are: President, D. Logan; recording secretary, Richard D. Bland; financial secretary, William Giles; treasurer, William Stien; board of trustees, C. C. Compolly, James Duffy and R. D. Bland. When first organized this union admitted all classes of laborers to membership. Seven months ago, however, the society was reorganized, and the constitution then adopted confined membership to those actually engaged in the business of mortar-making and hod-carrying—callings which are not now rated as common or unskilled labor.

The constitution of this union makes no provisions for benefits, nor does it insure against accident or death. The union is purely protective. State of trade, satisfactory. Wages, $4 per day of nine hours. No union men out of employment. The plastering bosses are the employers, and all the plastering shops in the city, save three, are union shops.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

There are three assemblies of the Knights of Labor in this city. There are two kinds of Knights of Labor assemblies—straight and mixed. A straight assembly is one composed of men who belong to the same trade or craft. A mixed assembly is one composed of men of all callings. When an assembly is composed of men all of whom are connected with the same trade or calling, it is usually incorporated in the title of the assembly, as: Bricklayers' Local Assembly No. ——; or, Hodcarriers' Local Assembly No. ——. In all other cases assemblies are simply styled, Local Assembly No. ——. The Tailors' Local Assembly No. 4350, of this city, meets at Painters' Hall, Aliso street, on the first and third Mondays of each month. Following are the officers for the current year: Master workman, Thomas Vernon; recording secretary, William Blum; financial secretary, G. N. Dietye; worthy foreman, M. Naylor; worthy inspector, F. Pfeiffenberger; treasurer, R. Adams; unknown knight, R. Bellman; almoner, O. A. Ricketad; statistician, C. Green; insurance solicitor, G. Dreisback; inside esquire, L. Gassner; outside esquire, Ed Lange; judge of court, H. C. Newachek; judge advocate, R. Bellman; clerk of the court, C. Rosenthal; trustees, Thomas Vernon, M. Naylor and P. Miller.

From the foregoing it will be observed that the state of the Los Angeles labor market is good. The Carpenters' Union is the only labor organization in the city that complains of insufficiency of labor; and when it is remembered that the Carpenters' Union contains nearly a thousand men, and that many non-union carpenters are in the city, it is no matter of surprise that some union men are idle.

COOKS AND WAITERS.

The Los Angeles White Cooks, Waiters and Employés' Protective Union, 400 members, meets every Thursday evening at Painters' Hall. The officers for the current year are: President, G. H. Niemeyer; vice-president, E. P. McDermott; recording secretary, H. D. Bishop; financial secretary, L. J. Harris; treasurer, J. E. Brink; past president, Thomas Molyneaux; marshal, C. E. Burke. The state of trade is satisfactory to the union. Wages, monthly, range from $40 to $150, with board and lodging, which equals $80 and $190 per month. With board and lodging added, following is the schedule of hotel monthly wages: First or head cook, $150; second cook, $75; third cook or broiler, $50; fourth or vegetable cook, $40. Restaurants, weekly wages, with board, no lodging: First cook, from $20 to $25; short-order cooks, $15. Hotel pastry cooks receive $80 per month, with board and lodging, and waiters' wages range from $12 to $15 per week with board.

BAKERS.

Los Angeles Local Union No. 125, of the Journeymen Bakers' National Union of the United States, meets at Painters' Hall, Aliso street, on the first and last Saturday of every month. It contains 85 members and its officers are: President, Joe Hartmann; vice-president, Herman Miller; recording secretary, F. Wittenstien; corresponding secretary, Adolph Stein; financial secretary, Frank Langer; treasurer, August Rothenpeeler; sergeant-at-arms, Sabastian Hunger; trustees, Conrad Lindner, E. Eberlin and E. Marschall; executive committee, Paul Wittke, Joe Jawbs, William Schreirbaum, F. Bachman, Julius Marschall, Gus Stiegler and Sabastian Hunger. This union fixes wages. Trade at present is satisfactory to the union. No union men are idle.

Following is the Los Angeles schedule of weekly wages: Bread foreman, $25; cake baker, $20 to $25; second hands, $16 to $18; third hands, $14 to $16; fourth hands, $14 and $15. No man is permitted to work for less than $14. Should a man persist in working for less than the union minimum he is ordered out of the shop. Should the shop refuse to discharge him the concern is struck. No strike, however, can be inaugurated until the national headquarters is notified. When a strike is countenanced by the National Union the strikers receive material aid and assistance from that body. Bakers work from 9 to 11 hours, save on Saturday, when they work 16 and 18 hours.

SWITCHMEN.

The Los Angeles Switchmen's Union No. 43, of the American Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association of North America, 52 members, meets on the first and third Sundays of each month at Engineers' Hall. The officers of the union are: Master, A. J. Hogan; vice-master, H. C. Hosmer; recording secretary, M. W. Higgins; financial secretary, J. J. Foley; treasurer, H. Carney; past master, D. Porter. Trade satisfactory to the union. No union men idle. Wages from $75 to $85 per month. This union is but partially beneficial, weekly benefits being granted only to those members who are injured while engaged at their trade. It contains an insurance feature, however (and every member must insure), whereby, in case of total disabilities or death, no matter from what cause, the man disabled, or the heirs of the dead, are entitled to the sum of $700.

BRAKEMEN.

The Los Angeles Local Union of the American Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen—75 members— meets every Thursday at Engineers' Hall, J. Baker, master. The form of benefits and the insurance feature of the switchmen's organization are the same in the Brakemen's Union. There are two wage schedules for Los Angeles brakemen. Those who run over the mountains receive $75 per month and extra-hour time. Those who run over the desert receive $80 per month. State of trade good. No union men out of employment.

Rise in Land Values.

[Santa Monica Outlook.]

We yesterday gathered a scrap of information from Mr. John Wolfskill, which goes to show the great advance in land values in this part of California. Mr. Wolfskill says that in 1865 his father loaned the owner of the San José de Buenos Ayres ranch $8000 and the owner afterward wanted him to take the entire ranch as part pay for the loan. This same ranch, containing 4438 acres, was sold a short time ago to a syndicate for $438,000. The syndicate has since located upon the ranch the townsite of Sunset, and subdivided the lands into a large number of lots and small acre tracts, many of which have been sold at good figures. The owners of the property have given 300 acres for a Soldiers' Home, and will then realize $1,000,000 out of the sale before they dispose of all the property. Thus it will be seen that the ranch, in 22 years, has advanced in value from about $4000 to figures not far short of $1,000,000.

PRECIOUS METALS.

Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Annual Exhibit for 1887.

Wells, Fargo & Co.'s annual statement of precious metals produced in the States and Territories west of the Mississippi River (including British Columbia and receipts by express from the West Coast States of Mexico) during 1887, shews aggregate products as follows: Gold, $33,074,023; silver, $51,578,118; copper, $10,352,746; lead, $9,631,073; total gross result, $104,645,959. The statement is prefaced with the following remarks: "As stated repeatedly, the facilities afforded for the transportation of bullion, ores and base metals, by the extension of railroads into mining districts, increase the difficulty of verifying the reports of the products from several important localities; especially is this the case in the reports from Colorado and Montana; and the general tendency is to exaggeration when the actual values are not obtainable from authentic sources; but the aggregate result as shown herein, we think may be relied on with reasonable confidence as approximately correct."

The following table gives the total amount of gold dust and bullion and silver bullion by express, gold dust and bullion by other conveyances, and ores and base bullion by freight:

| | |
|---|---|
| California | $13,962,923 |
| Nevada | 10,232,459 |
| Oregon | 950,000 |
| Washington | 160,000 |
| Alaska | 600,000 |
| Idaho | 8,240,000 |
| Montana | 25,483,275 |
| Utah | 7,637,730 |
| Colorado | 23,233,000 |
| New Mexico | 4,229,254 |
| Arizona | 5,771,550 |
| Dakota | 3,068,605 |
| Mexico (west coast States) | 762,035 |
| British Columbia | 556,154 |
| Total | $104,645,959 |

The gross yield for 1887, shown above, segregated, is approximately as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Gold, 31.61 per cent | $33,074,022 |
| Silver, 49.29 per cent | 51,578,118 |
| Copper, 9.90 per cent | 10,362,746 |
| Lead, 9.20 per cent | 9,631,073 |
| Total | $104,645,959 |

The annual products of lead, copper, silver and gold in the States and Territories west of the Missouri River, and British Columbia, and the west coast of Mexico, from 1870 to 1887, is as follows:

| YEAR. | Total product from all sources. | After deducting British Col. and Mex. |
|---|---|---|
| 1870 | $54,000,000 | $52,150,000 |
| 1871 | 58,284,000 | 55,784,000 |
| 1872 | 62,236,959 | 60,351,824 |
| 1873 | 72,258,693 | 70,139,860 |
| 1874 | 74,401,045 | 71,965,610 |
| 1875 | 90,880,957 | 76,703,455 |
| 1876 | 90,875,173 | 87,219,859 |
| 1877 | 98,421,754 | 96,811,589 |
| 1878 | 81,154,622 | 78,276,167 |
| 1879 | 75,349,501 | 72,688,868 |
| 1880 | 80,167,936 | 77,232,512 |

The exports of silver during the past year to Japan, China, the Straits, etc., have been as follows: From London, $23,861,805; from Marseilles, $4,650,906; from San Francisco, $14,444,907. Total, $43,006,618, as against $44,084,500 last year. Pounds sterling estimated at $4.84.

The total coinage of gold, silver and copper, in the republic of Mexico, from July 1, 1873, to June 30, 1887, is as follows: Gold, $8,045,749; silver, $323,883,606; copper, $203,296; grand total, $332,132,653. The exhibit of the coinage of Mexico from the establishments of the mints in 1537 to the end of the fiscal year of 1887, is as follows: Colonial epoch, from 1537 to 1821, $2,151,581,960; Independence, from 1822 to 1873, $809,655,251; Republic, from 1873 to 1887, $332,132,653; total, $3,293,369,864.

The statement closes with the remarks that "the exhibits of production and mintage indicate a steady development of the mining interests of the United States of America, and also of Mexico, and with the increasing facilities of railway communication fostering every department of industry, the outlook for a continued growth in the product of precious metals is flattering."

ICE FOR LOS ANGELES.

A Pennsylvania Company Expects to Furnish Us with Machines.

[Carbondale (Pa.) Leader, Jan. 4.]

An important meeting of the board of directors of the Hendrick Manufacturing Company was held in the office of the company yesterday. The meeting was called to arrange for the sale of the remaining amount of stock. Forty thousand dollars of it is already taken, and the other $100,000 will be the first offered pro rata to the present shareholders, but if they do not wish it all, what is left will be immediately placed on the market. Mr. Bassett said yesterday to a newspaper man that there would be no trouble in doing this; in fact, there is a demand for the stock among capitalists, who see now what an excellent thing the company has. Mr. Hendrick writes very encouraging letters from Los Angeles, Cal., and if the opinion of that gentleman is worth as much as those who know him think it is, this city will, in the not very distant future, be the headquarters of a great ice machine manufactory. One of these letters to Superintendent Smith, of the works here, has been given to a reporter with permission to use, and extracts are here given. After some words of only a personal interest, Mr. Hendrick says: "Hurry along the Binghamton machine as fast as possible so as to find out what there is in it, because I think I can sell one of them here in Southern California. Most everybody wants one. I think there are more great hotels to the square acre here than in any other country in the world outside of the great cities, and they are all full, too. Ice is so high that every one of them would have a machine if it did not cost more than $5000 to $8000. Then there is a new town springing up on almost every ranch. (I learned that a ranch may be 20 acres, or it may be 1,000,000 acres. Rev. J. B. Toombs has a ranch of 50 acres, and one was sold here last week of 104,000 acres for $4,000,000.) Generally, a large hotel is built preliminary to building a town, but sometimes the town gets the start. But in either case they want ice. And the people here talk more about cold storage than they do about ice. Almost everybody I hear talk about it seems to think that cold storage is next to real estate as a business."

The writer then gives a very interesting account of the horticulture and climate of the region in which he is staying, in which, among other things he mentions a hedge of calla lillies all in bloom out-doors in midwinter. Of Los Angeles, where the great ice machine is to be erected, he says: "It is bound to be a great city I think. In fact it now has the appearance of being a much larger town than Scranton, and is growing like weeds in our gardens in the spring. I am willing to take the chances with the ice machine here. It will pay 10 per cent. the first year. Mr. Raymond told me here this morning that the fuel alone cost them $10 for each ton of ice they made last year with their machine, which is an ether machine. They have not got it running yet this winter, and are paying $17.50 per ton for the ice they use. If I can't do better than that I shall never return to Penn. I will crawl into some hole somewhere, and pull the hole in after me."

Mr. Hendrick says that he will return to Pennsylvania in February.

Some One

May wish a 5 or 40 acre lot of land, three miles from this city, with water and improvements, for $350 per acre. If so, call on Chas. Victor Hall, 204½ South Spring street.

Acreage in Bannister's addition to Santa Fe Springs is selling rapidly. Now is the time to buy, as the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and Southern Pacific roads will be running trains through the springs by January, when prices will be advanced. This will pay to investigate. Byram & Poindexter, 27 West First street.

CHICAGO, $13!

(LIMITED.)

A Big Monrovia Enterprise.

Lots in the new town of Chicago Park (South Monrovia), are now on sale for the nominal sum of $13 purchase price and $15 conditional bonuses, as follows:

$5.00 cash.
$5.00 February 10, 1888.
$5.00 March 10th, provided track is being laid and part of rolling-stock delivered for Monrovia and Chicago Park Railroad.
$5.00 April 10th, provided twenty-five buildings are up or in course of erection in the town.
$5.00 May 10th, provided school building, church and hotel are under course of construction, and street-car line completed and in operation.
$3.00 on delivery of deed, together with printed copy of abstract, subject to comparison with original.

Thus if improvements are NOT made, purchasers secure their lots at $13 each; and if improvements ARE made, they then cost less than acre property, north, south and west of tract.

How can I do this? Listen: I own, by deed and agreement, nearly 1000 acres of land about nine and one-half miles east of Pasadena and one and one-quarter miles south of Monrovia station, and adjoining "Lucky" Baldwin's ranch, and nearly joining the world-renowned Duarte orchards. About 400 acres of this is in barley; part is an old cornfield; part is wild, and there are two small orchards. I intended this for colony purposes, but have finally decided to lay out a suburb to the lovely city of Monrovia, sell off the lots at low acreage prices, and make my money out of the five and 10-acre lots adjoining. Many people consider town property entirely too high, and hesitate to pay as much for a lot as their house will cost; so I expect this sale will result in the building of a lively center, surrounded by lovely homes, in this loveliest part of the San Gabriel Valley.

The townsite is laid out on the deeded portion of the tract, and is almost perfectly level, and nearly free from stone. Splendid fruit land, and free from alkali. A mountain wash finds its way across the tract. I have reserved 100 mason and builders' lots for washbed, to which it will undoubtedly some day be confined. Some of the lots to be sold are in the present wash, but I guarantee over 1000 of them to be beautiful rich loam (not 'dobe), almost absolutely free from stone; the remainder, outside of the wash, are lighter soil, but smooth, somewhat gravelly (not stony), and better land than thousands of acres of $500-per-acre land in the same valley.

I do not guarantee that improvements mentioned above will be made, but I am willing to forfeit over one-half of the insignificant $35 per lot if they are not made, besides making a sad failure of my sale of adjacent land.

Lots are numbered from northwest corner in routine, for purpose of receipting only. Twenty-three lots are reserved for school grounds, churches, free library, hotel, and three business houses already agreed upon. These lots are designated by letters. When all other lots are sold a meeting of lot-owners will be called, a map of tract placed upon the wall face in, a target gun placed in the hands of some poor marksman, and when he or she succeeds in hitting said map the lot perforated by the bullet shall be lot one, and will follow former routine of numbering, excepting 100 reserved wash lots and lettered lots. This will preclude the possibility of any unfair treatment of purchasers, and will be the quickest way of deciding the matter. After the lots are thus properly numbered, all owners are particularly requested to at once plant trees in front of their respective lots, which in short time will make Chicago Park a park indeed.

For $1 per lot I will have three trees planted in front of lots outside of wash, and taken care of for two years. WILL BEACH.

Further particulars and photographs of tract at my office, 74 S. Fair Oaks avenue, under Lodging Directory, Pasadena, or SANBORN & WILLEY, sole agents, Los Angeles, 9 N. Main street, near First.

I refer without permission to Carr & Cook, Austin & Co., George D. Rowan, John C. Bell, J. S. Chadwick, J. T. Handsacker, University Bank, H. Sinsabaugh, E. F. Coulter, Will D. Gould, H. K. Bent, Arthur Bray, M. S. Rowell, R. M. Beach, George Butler Griffin, J. S. Maitman, T. Wiesendanger, Los Angeles National Bank, all of Los Angeles; or, to Pasadena banks and business men generally.

Lots also for sale in my addition to Crescenta, in my Northwest Pasadena tract, and in East Claremont; also, on account of great press of other business, all three of my lodging houses in Pasadena for sale cheap.

SOUTH CUCAMONGA, CAL.,

The Peer of Town Sites,

Situated on the Great Sunset Route of the

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY,

About

Forty Miles East From Los Angeles.

Among the coming towns of Southern California, no town has been laid out on a more substantial scale with a view to future growth and prosperity than South Cucamonga, San Bernardino county, Cal.

Its location is one of the most charming in the

GREAT CUCAMONGA VALLEY,

Situated on the gently sloping plain, at an altitude of 952 feet above sea level, and within full view of the grandly towering peaks of the magnificent Sierra Madre range. Old Baldy, with his superb height of 9000 feet and heavy, snow-crowned tops, and Cucamonga, with its grand height of 5000 feet, together look down in majesty on the lovely valley at their feet, where, in most charming contrast, may be seen, far as the eye can roam, orchards of orange, lemon, lime and olive, and vineyards laden with semi-tropical fruits, and fields clad with verdure and laden with perfume.

About three miles to the west may be seen the flourishing town and colony of Ontario; to the south-west, about the same distance, the old, world-renowned Cucamonga vineyard; to the north, the fine new town of North Cucamonga; to the northeast is the village of Etiwanda, and to the southeast, Riverside, Colton and San Bernardino, and immediately to the southwest is the rich and prolific Chino ranch, South Cucamonga being the great central point.

The climate of any section being dependent largely in distance from the sea coast, altitude of surface, relation to mountains, and general topograpy and contour. These conditions are perhaps as nearly perfect in Cucamonga as can be found anywhere in the world. The distance from the sea coast assures freedom from fog-laden sea breezes, while the atmosphere here is so pure, dry and exhilerating that those suffering from asthmatic and pulmonary troubles find it most invigorating and health-restoring.

The water supply is inexhaustible, and, being from never-failing mountain springs, is absolutely pure. It is conducted in iron pipes, which are already laid throughout the streets of the town.

The soil is superior and rich sedimentary deposit, of extraordinary depth, is loose and easily worked, and retains moisture for a great length of time, requiring very little irrigation. Those who are thoroughly competent to judge have pronounced Cucamonga, taking soil and climate together, to be far superior to the famous Duarte and Riverside orange belt for raising oranges, lemons, etc., while it is entirely free from scale. The company also offers lands in 10, 20 and 40-acre tracts, with water, adjoining the town site of South Cucamonga.

No new town in Southern California has brighter prospects for becoming a railroad center than South Cucamonga. Already it has two great continental lines, the Southern Pacific forming the boundary line to the South, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe a short distance to the North, with two projected lines—one to Riverside and another to Salt Lake City.

A fine new passenger and freight depot, just completed by the Southern Pacific Railway, adds greatly to the comfort of travelers and general attractions. Over thirty trains pass through Cucamonga daily.

To secure the comfort of visitors, the fine new hotel belonging to the company has been opened under the management of a thoroughly competent hotel man. No expense has been spared in the appointments and furnishing to make it first-class in every respect, while the rates will always be reasonable.

The grounds surrounding the hotel and in the park adjoining have been tastefully laid out with all kinds of tropical shrubbery, everplaying fountains, etc., by an experienced landscape gardener, and over 20,000 trees have been planted in the streets of the town.

A sojourn at this pleasant hotel, where within easy reach are the picturesque mountain trails, the grandly beautiful cañon and irresistably charming scenery of mountain, glen and valley, will be found vastly conducive to health and happiness.

SOUTH CUCAMONGA

is no new town in the midst of an unpopulated district, but is right in the center of the finest improved portion of the Great Cucamonga Valley, and is bound to become a business center.

Owing to its great richness the soil produces the finest oranges and lemons grown in the State, peaches, apples, pears, figs, almonds and walnuts, and the finest of wine and raisin grapes. As proof of the great fertility of this section—the old Cucamonga vineyard (one of the oldest and finest in the State), adjoining Cucamonga, may be mentioned. The wines produced there having a world-renowned celebrity.

Freight received at South Cucamonga depot, for the year 1887, amounts to the enormous sum of 5,322,375 pounds; shipments from said depot for the same period 2,099,625 pounds, thus showing the importance of this rapidly-growing locality as a shipping point for the surrounding country.

A first-class livery stable will be opened immediately.

Telegraph, postoffice and express offices are already established, and the company intends shortly to erect a number of fine stores, private residences, and also contemplate the erection of a fine bank building. Lots have been set aside for school and church purposes, park and hotel grounds have been tastefully laid out, and over 20,000 trees planted on the streets of the town.

The lots are all good and perfectly level, and the company have placed them on the market at the lowest possible price, in order to enable those buying to realize a handsome profit within a short space of time. Compared with surrounding towns, there are no prices as low. In Ontario, the nearest town on the west, similarly situated lots are now selling at from $1000 to $4000.

A town backed by the extensive influence of prominent railroad officials, and such representative men as H. M. Hellman, W. H. Goucher, C. F. Smurr, T. B. Henry, John E. Jackson, A. A. Staunton, H. M. Russell, etc., whose determination is to make it one of the most prosperous towns in Southern California, is assured.

The Cucamonga Land and Improvement Company, during the last few months, have been sparing no expense in improving and beautifying this splendid property and getting it ready for sale and being now assured of its great success as the coming town between Los Angeles and San Bernardino, have formally announced it on the market.

As the date of sale commences at 9 o'clock a.m. on and after

TUESDAY, JANUARY 10, 1888,

at the company's office, 130½ West First street, Los Angeles, as well as through the agency of all reliable real-estate firms in the city and throughout Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties, intending purchasers should not miss this opportunity to get in early and secure their lots at the first prices of the company.

This season the fruit was sold green, as was also the raisin grapes, but next year it is probable that all the fruit will be dried and the raisin grapes cured and probably packed on the place.

All in all, the Barton Vineyard is a wonderful place, and when in "full blast," as the saying is, an army of men are employed gathering and handling the products of its fertile acres. Last spring Mr. Barton sold three-quarters of the place to an English syndicate for upward of $1,000,000, retaining a one-fourth interest and the management. The vineyard company is now known properly as the Barton Estate Company, limited, and the stockholders are bound to make an immense fortune.

A Small Fruit Farm.

[Fresno Republican.]

George A. Noble has 11 acres of nectarine trees in the Malaga tract, five miles southeast of town, which are now 4 years old. From this orchard he sold $1810 worth of fruit this season. From six acres of 4-year-old peach trees he sold $800 worth of fruit. Ten acres of Zinfandel grapes yielded $750, and four acres of pear trees yielded a first crop, which netted $50. Five acres of alfalfa yielded 70 tons of hay, worth $6 per ton, and will now furnish good pasturage during the winter months. Besides all this, Mr. Noble set a great quantity of Muscat grape cuttings out in his orchard in nursery form, and now has 75,000 rooted vines, which will sell readily at $20 per 1000. There were many little odds and ends, such as butter, eggs, poultry, hogs and vegetables — sufficient to keep a large family—of which no account was kept. Five thousand three hundred and thirty dollars is a very handsome income from an 80-acre farm not yet under cultivation, and the trees and vines planted not yet in full bearing.

Lice in Winter.

[Kansas City Live Stock Record.]

Poultry is just as liable to be infested with lice in the winter as in the summer, the only difference being that they are not so prolific in the cold months, and do not increase so rapidly. Watch for the little pests every day in the year, and upon first sign of them begin a war on them. We throw sulphur into the dust bath occasionally through the winter, and have no trouble with lice. Speaking of a dust bath, we want to say: Don't use ashes in the place of dust if you can possibly help it, for they will fade a yellow leg so that it will be entirely spoiled for show purposes. The ashes are not harmful so long as dry, but many times a fowl with wet legs gets into the dustbox, and if it is filled with ashes the mischief is done.

Feeding Corn and Oats.

[F. H. in Prairie Farmer.]

There is no question but that oats are the best grain we can raise on which to feed horses. They contain more of the elements of nutrition than any other grain, and, therefore, horses that are fed on oats can perform their labor with a less degree of fatigue than when fed on any other article of food. Oats are the most natural food for horses, and with this grain they can be brought to the highest state of physical perfection. On the contrary, corn-fed horses lack vitality, sweat easily, and consequently cannot perform so much labor as will horses fed on oats. Corn is deficient in some of the elements of nutrition so necessary to replace the constantly worn-out material of the body.

A Novel Use for an Old Tunnel.

The Scotland-street tunnel, Edinburgh, which has been disused for 20 years, has been leased to a mushroom company which has converted it into a huge mushroom-growing bed. The tunnel is 1100 yards long and 24 feet wide, and when fully occupied 2000 tons of manure and soil will have been deposited. At present mushrooms at all stages are growing, in some places as many as 82 plants growing in a square foot. A uniform temperature is maintained in the tunnel, and the great advantage is that they can be grown summer and winter and supplied fresh every morning to consumers.

A Card.

I beg to intimate that Alexander Forbes is associated as a partner with me, that the business in future will be carried on under the firm name of Blackman & Forbes, expert accountants and auditors; at the office, 117 New High street, Los Angeles Mr. Forbes has had large and varied experience, both professional and commercial, before coming to this city. During his residence here he has been principally engaged in adjusting, balancing and auditing land, water and corporation books, and is acknowledged to have a thorough and extensive acquaintance with such work, to which in future we will devote our best abilities. As public auditing is daily becoming more necessary, a great part of our time will be given to such work. The investigation and adjusting of accounts, opening, posting and balancing books shall have prompt attention, while secrecy and care can be fully relied on.

My own professional standing is now so well known that I make no comment, but thank all my numerous clients for past favors, with the hope that they will extend the same to the new firm. W. R. Blackman.

Auction Sale of Euclid Heights.

Tuesday, January 17th, at 1 o'clock p.m., by H. H. Matlock & Son, auctioneers, 111 West First street.

The location of Euclid Heights is high and commands a magnificent view. Euclid Heights is adjacent to Boyle Heights, one block from Stevenson avenue, now being graded at a cost of $100,000, preparatory to laying a double-track cable line, connecting with Second-street line and running to the new Presbyterian University. This elegant tract lies also within a few minutes' walk of Aliso-street-car line, which is to be converted into a cable line. For residences this tract cannot be surpassed. Free conveyances to ground day of sale.

The City Water.

There having been so much complaint lately about the impurity of the city water, the owners of the Schumacher tract determined to give their customers something better, and have been most fortunate in obtaining an abundant supply of the pure article, which will be piped to every lot free of cost, thus making lots in this tract the most desirable and cheapest in the market, being on a car line, only 30 minutes' ride from First street, with high elevation and every convenience. Price $400 and upward. Terms easy. Bradshaw & Zellner, agents, room 23, 33 South Spring street.

The George Dalton, Sr., Tract

Is on the corner of Central avenue and Washington street. Take street cars at First and San Pedro every half hour. Time about 10 minutes. Office at 29½ South Spring street, 9 to 12 a.m.; after that at the tract. Improved property, one-fourth cash, balance in easy payments. Water piped. Lots, $625 upward. Look at them carefully before you purchase. Find Charles Victor Hall. Be sure and buy one early.

The Mirror Premium Sewing-Machine.

$25.50—FOR A—$75.00

High-Arm Sewing-Machine!

—AND THE—

WEEKLY MIRROR.

[The machines described below are now kept on hand at the Times-Mirror office, and persons can be supplied on short notice, without having to wait until they are shipped from Chicago. The freight is included in the charge below named, from Chicago to Los Angeles. Persons ordering machines from this office will pay the extra freight to their destination.]

For $25.50 this machine and WEEKLY MIRROR, postage paid, for one year.

This machine is the first of its kind ever offered the public at factory prices, and cannot be bought from agents for less than the regular selling price, $75. It is the high-arm pattern, has self-setting needle; cannot be run backward; has automatic cut-off for driving belt, which prevents it from being run backward, thus avoiding all dangers of breaking thread or needles. It is a noiseless, light-running machine, accompanied by an illustrated book of instructions that makes everything so plain and simple that any lady or child can master it. We call it the MIRROR HIGH-ARM SEWING MACHINE, and we warrant it to give full and entire satisfaction in every case, or it may be returned to us within ten days after the subscriber has received the same, if it fails to be as represented, at our expense, and the money will be refunded.

Knowing the character of the machine and the high grade of material and workmanship entering into its construction, we have no hesitation in agreeing to return the money at once to any subscriber who is not fully satisfied on examination that our high-arm machine is fully equal to our representations, we paying freight on return of the machine.

CAUTION—Sewing machine agents will tell you, "Beware of Cheap machines." We tell you buy the high-arm machine on trial, and if not satisfactory return it. No agent can sell you its equal for less than $75. Each part of the machine is fitted with such exactness that no trouble can arise if any part is broken; for a new piece can be supplied with an assurance of a perfect fit.

OUTFIT—Each machine is supplied with the following outfit: One Hemmer and Feller (one piece), Twelve Needles, Six Bobbins, One Wrench, One Quilting Gauge, One Screw Driver, One Can with Oil, Cloth Gauge and Thumb-screw and a Book of Directions. The following extra attachments are also furnished free: Ruffler, Tucker, Binder, Set of Wide Hemmers and Shirring Plate.

Give shipping directions plainly, as well as the postoffice address the paper is to be sent to.

Having arranged with the manufacturers to supply us with these machines in large quantities for spot cash at or very near first cost, we can save our subscribers at least $25 on the price of each machine. As this is the first time a sewing machine of this character has been offered the public at about manufacturer's cost, we feel confident our readers will promptly take advantage of this opportunity to provide themselves with first-class high-arm machines, which obtained in any other way would cost them almost three times the amount.

We could fill several columns expatiating on the merits of this high-arm machine, but to save the reader's patience we will simply say that it contains all the modern improvements, is strong, simple, durable, light-running and noiseless.

☞ The LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES—Any person desiring the Daily and this Sewing Machine can have the same by mail for $32.50, they paying the freight from this office to their destination.

HOW TO ORDER.

When you remit us the $25.50 for the Machine and WEEKLY MIRROR one year, write plainly the point the machine is to be shipped to, as well as the postoffice the paper is to be sent to. The machine should be ordered to the nearest railroad point where the railroad company an agent stationed, and the name of railroad station, the county and State should be stated When $25.50 is sent for the WEEKLY MIRROR one year and the machine, the freight charges from Los Angeles are to be paid by the subscriber at the point the Machine is delivered to.

TESTIMONIALS:

"GIVING PERFECT SATISFACTION."

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 30, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The Times-Mirror Sewing-Machine is giving perfect satisfaction; in my opinion it is as good as any $65 machine. I have not done any heavy work on it yet, but I think it will do it all right. J. W. Ross, Pasadena, Cal.

"HIGHLY PLEASED WITH IT."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 20, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: In reply to yours of 26th would state that I am highly pleased with the Premium Sewing-Machine I received with the MIRROR. Gives every satisfaction; so easy to learn how to manage; does such excellent work; in fact cannot praise it too much, and would not take twice the amount it cost me. I am, yours respectfully, MRS. EDWIN BROWN.

"THE MORE WE USE IT, THE BETTER WE LIKE IT."

PASADENA, Cal., Oct. 28, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: I have used your sewing-machine since last July. The more we use it the better we like it. On fine and heavy work it is splendid. We have tried the attachment. In fact, it goes ahead of your advertisement so far.

MRS S. A. WARE Pasadena, Cal.

"LIKES IT BETTER THAN THE $125 SINGER."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 1, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The machine gives entire satisfaction. My wife likes it better than the $125 Singer that it has replaced. Yours truly,

JOSEPH WILSON.

"GIVES GOOD SATISFACTION."

EAST LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 1, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: We have the High-Arm Machine and use it for light family sewing. It gives good satisfaction. Yours etc. S. W. TRUE.

"RUNS SMOOTH—AND SEWS EVERYTHING BUT BUTTONS."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 20, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The report from the chief engineer of the sewing-department of my domestic establishment is to the effect that the sewing-machine lately furnished by you for $32 arrived in good order and in due time, and has given entire satisfaction. It runs lightly and with very little noise and performs to perfection all kinds of sewing work with the exception of buttons. Very truly yours, WM. P. WADE.

"TRIED 'EM ALL, AND LIKES THE MIRROR MACHINE BEST."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 29, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: My wife tried several $75 machines, and chose the Mirror Premium Sewing-Machine as an equal to the best in the market, for one-fourth of the money. It is perfect in all particulars, and admired by all who see it. My wife has been using it several months, and we both cheerfully recommend it to the public, as represented. WM. L. PRICE, 218 Temple Street.

"SAME IN WORKMANSHIP AND MATERIAL AS THE HIGH-PRICED ARTICLE."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 21, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: Having sold hundreds of the Remington Sewing-Machines for $65, which you are now offering with the WEEKLY MIRROR at $32, I wish to say that the machine you offer is identically the same as the high-priced article both as to material, workmanship and capacity. Being a resident here and an experienced sewing-machine man, I will take pleasure in instructing any one in working the machine, in this place or vicinity.

C. E. SPENCER.

"IS DELIGHTED WITH IT."

POMONA, Cal., Oct. 25, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The High-Arm Mirror Sewing-Machine came in good time, in excellent condition, without scratch or blemish, and I am delighted with it.

We believe the machine is all that you recommend it to be, and think it a rare opportunity for those who may want a machine to get a first-class one cheap. Yours truly, MRS. J. W. STRINGFIELD.

"PERFECT IN EVERY RESPECT."

NORWALK, Cal., Oct. 26, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The High-Arm Premium Machine arrived in prime condition, and is perfect in every respect. Freight $2.50, with first cost added, making $32.50 for as good a machine as are usually sold through agents for $75. Well pleased. Yours respectfully,

MRS. E. C. CRANSTON

"VERY MUCH PLEASED WITH IT."

DOWNEY, Cal., Oct. 26, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: I am very much pleased with my machine, as far as I have used it, and feel safe in saying that I have just as good a machine as if I had given $65 for it. Shall advise any of my friends to try this before buying any other, as I think it is fully as good as represented. Very truly, MRS. MARTHA ALLISON.

"RUNS LIGHT AND EASY—DOES ITS WORK WELL."

PASADENA, Cal., Nov. 20, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: I can say in regard to the machine that it is well liked. It runs light and easy, and does its work well. It is a very cheap machine at price you furnish it. Yours truly,

S. M. SHAW.

"EQUAL TO BEST SHE EVER USED."

COMPTON, Cal., Oct. 29, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The High-Arm Sewing-Machine ordered from your company was received in good order, and Mrs Parcel says it is equal to the best of any other kind she has ever used. Very respectfully, WM. T. PARCEL.

"PROVES SATISFACTORY."

SAN GABRIEL, Cal., Oct. 25, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: The sewing machine we received through your office proves satisfactory. Truly yours,

W. F. BEADLEY.

"WIFE THINKS IT THE BEST SHE EVER USED."

JUSTIN CITY, Cal., Nov. 3, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: We received Premium Sewing-Machine through your office, and my wife thinks it the best she ever used, consequently are well pleased.

J. W. MCLELLAN.

"SUPERIOR IN SOME RESPECTS TO THE BEST."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 20, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: My wife and daughter are well pleased with your Times Mirror Sewing-Machine. They have used several of the best makes of machines and yet say your machine is superior in some respects to those they have used, and in no way inferior. They were at first afraid, as many are, no doubt, that it is too cheap to be first-class, but are now satisfied that it is as good as machines costing three or four times as much. Yours truly,

S. A. MATTISON.

"TIGHTENED THE SCREW AND SHE RUNS ALL RIGHT."

NEWHALL, Cal., Nov. 3, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: Yours of the 1st inst. received. Will say in reply that soon after I wrote you I discovered the cause of the trouble. The little tension screw in the shuttle had worked loose and was nearly out, and the shuttle thread, in sewing fast, would catch on the screw and break. I tightened the screw and it now works like a charm; no more breaking thread or irregularity of stitch. Very respectfully, L. A. MYERS.

"ONE OF THE BEST INVESTMENTS THEY EVER MADE."

ORANGE, Cal., Oct. 22, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: We received our High-Armed Sewing-Machine in good order, and I am very much pleased with it, and consider it one of the best investments we ever made. It is nicely finished, and runs strong and light, doing nice work. Any one needing a good machine I do not think can do better than invest $32 in the machine and MIRROR. Respectfully yours,

MRS. U. L. SHAFFER.

"MORE THAN SATISFIED AND GLADLY RECOMMENDS IT."

ORANGE, Cal., Oct. 22, 1886.

Times-Mirrors Company: I thank you for sending to us for testimonials, as I have sat my new machine in the parlor, without even threading it, as I was very busy and had a good machine ready for work and used to running. So I did not take time to do anything with the new one until I received your letter. Then I brought mine and went to running it to test it. I was more than satisfied, and gladly recomend it to those in need of a machine. I think I would have gained time to have used it long ago. Our little girl wants to write a letter to Mrs. Otis for the children's column. So if it is not worthy of a place there, just drop it in the waste-basket please. As ever,

MARTHA M. SHAFFER.

"EQUAL TO ANY $65 MACHINE."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19, 1886.

Times-Mirror Company: For the benefit of those who stand in need of a good sewing-machine, I will say, that after using the Premium Machine for about four months, I find it equal to any $65 machine I have seen. Yours, etc.,

THE New York World remarks that "rheumatism is a sure sign of genius in these days." We are inclined to accept the statement as truth, for we have suffered a good many rheumatic twinges of late.

TEN miles of sewers is what San Bernardino proposes for herself. The old town is no longer a mossback, but has caught on to the new life of this section, and does not intend to fall behind in improvements.

ABOUT four thousand new buildings were erected in New York city last year, and eastern papers pronounce that a "tremendous building activity." Los Angeles erected very nearly, if not quite, half that number of buildings, and did not make any blow about it, but took it as a natural result of rapid growth.

SOUTHERN papers report great progress in industrial development throughout the South. There is a growing tendency through all the old slave States to engage in industrial pursuits. The dignity of labor is beginning, in some degree, to be appreciated, and as the sentiment grows it will have a tendency to destroy the distinction of caste, which was one of the strongest roots of the old system of slavery. A full recognition of the dignity of labor will do more for the emancipation of the "New South" than all other influences combined. It will have a powerful influence in breaking down sectional prejudices when North and South are united in common pursuits and are alike fostering great industries. It will be a better day for the whole South than any in the past that sees this accomplished.

The Battle of the Sites.

The war over the location of the new City Hall threatens to become as bitter as that which is being waged over the appointment for Chief of Police. It is a noticeable fact that the advocates of the St. Vincent's scheme are beginning to lose their temper and call names, which may generally be accepted as a pretty sure sign of the weakness of their cause.

The Trombone, which is the only journal in the city that advocates the proposed change, continues to publish silly editorials on the subject, in the shape of unsigned "communications"—a method of advocating a scheme, while leaving a door to back out from, which is very popular with our knock-kneed contemporary.

In today's issue we publish a letter from Mr. Morgan, the architect, which contains about the most convincing arguments, in a short space, that have yet been contributed on the subject. Mr. Morgan corrects Mr. Humphreys's quotation of his remarks on the proportion of buildings erected north and south of Sixth street, and states that the city is building up more rapidly north than south of that street. As he justly argues, the convenience of the majority should be considered, and the fact that four-fifths of the population and all the business is north of Sixth street shows which way public convenience lies, as between the two sites. The St. Vincent's site is not central to business, nor will it be for very many years. It is inconvenient for the majority of our business men. Therefore, that site would not be adopted. The city is at present in a very good position. It owns good property, which will not run away, but increase in value. It is not situated like a tenant who has been given notice to quit, and must take the first available shelter he can find. Why, then, this hurry? To use a somewhat vulgar phrase, we might say to these would-be saviors of the city's future: "Keep your shirts on!" The city is all right, and the citizens are very well satisfied with things as they are.

Another very potent argument on this subject, which we heartily indorse, is produced this morning by our contemporary, the Herald. That journal very pertinently reminds the citizens that, if the St. Vincent block is so very desirable, so is the Fifth and Hill-street square. Why should the city pay $450,000 when it already has a better site, a block nearer in, with beautiful grounds already laid out? The money asked for the other site would erect one of the finest buildings in California on the City Square block, and leave plenty of room and plenty of money for beautiful grounds around it. What have the gentlemen who are so anxious for the city's welfare to say to this idea?

Meantime, we suggest that the City Hall be built on Fort street until the City Plaza becomes the center of the city, when the Fort-street property can be sold for $1,000,000—enough to put up a building that will be a credit to Los Angeles.

Loss Which Will Be Our Gain.

The terrible degree of cold experienced in some portions of the Northwest is beyond the comprehension of people living in more favored latitudes. Southern California has been having what we have designated as "a cold snap," and when the mercury fell to just below freezing point (32° above zero) there was a good deal of grumbling heard, although, of course, at that temperature, there was no actual suffering. But in some portions of Minnesota the thermometer indicated, a few days since, 54° below zero, a difference in temperature between that section and Los Angeles of about 85°. The amount of suffering that must exist under such atmospheric conditions it is not easy for the favored dwellers of this semi-tropical region to conceive of. Such extreme cold is deadly in its effect upon the system. The most robust and healthy person is not able to withstand it for any considerable period without injury to health, and those in a feeble condition of health, lacking vigor and vitality, must succumb sooner or later to its resultant consequences. After a winter in which such extreme cold is experienced, the death rate is always large. Old people die in large numbers, and invalids usually fall with the opening of the spring.

Such a winter will have its effect upon those who survive it. The memory of its attendant discomfort and suffering will serve to make them anxious to escape from a repetition of such an experience, and they will turn their eyes to more favored sections, where they may escape the cold of such inhospitable clime, and existence shall be less a burden. Like all the rest of the world, the dwellers in the great Northwest have heard of Southern California, and before the return of another winter they will make ready to come to us, selling their lands there at a sacrifice, if need be, or if they cannot sell them, leaving them to be sold whenever a purchaser can be found.

The story of the climatic comfort to be found in Southern California has peculiar attractions to those who have experienced a winter like the present in the great Northwest. Physical enjoyment, under conditions of such great discomfort, comes to be something to be considered and highly prized. People are ready to make sacrifices to secure it, and we may safely conclude that the rush to this coast is not to be lessened; that immigration will continue to pour in upon us in a constantly-increasing tide. The history of Southern California's prosperity has only just begun to be written. There is not a State in this whole Union among whose population there are not many who have turned inquiring eyes in this direction. There is not a State that will not contribute a certain quota of its citizens and of its wealth to enrich and make populous the Golden State of California. We who already possess the land are fortunate in that we came so early to take our share in its inheritance. It is worth something to grow up with a great State; to have a hand in its beginnings; to share in its advancement, and to take pride in its progress.

HERE is an Illinois paper with a level-headed editor. The Danville Commercial says:

"Wanted, to purchase immediately, a large block of California climate, or, if preferred, will exchange Illinois climate, 24 different varieties in 24 hours, giving a liberal mar-gin in favor of the California climate. Address this office. P. S.—Will throw in a full-grown, double-back-action, schooner-rigged Dakota blizzard with a record of 180 miles an hour, making four stops to the mile to lick up a town at every place, if desired."

THE Santa Clara "exhibit," which consists of some bottled fruits, brandy and olive oil, in the corner of a grocery store in this city, costs San José $250 a month. Probably not 50 people in Los Angeles have ever heard of this N.C.B. show.

BISHOP WHIPPLE very sensibly remarks that "as long as the Indian has an almshouse to go to, so long will he be a pauper." Give each Indian 160 acres, untransferable, and make him responsible for his actions in the same manner as a white man.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

In Favor of the Swap.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] This city covers 36 square miles, and nearly every portion of it is being built over, and the change of location of City Hall a few blocks is not a matter of so grave consequence. The geographical center is not of so much importance as some other considerations. Before the new building now contemplated could be completed the cable road will probably be running, which, with other lines centering there, will make the St. Vincent quite as easy of access as the new courthouse on the hill. The present building could be converted and used to advantage for several years. Within five years the State will be divided. The city, then owning the St. Vincent block, could say to the new State: Here is a block worth $150,000, in central part of city, beautifully and healthfully located, direct on best lines of travel, surrounded by hotels and beautiful homes, and from every point of consideration a most desirable place to build our capitol. If you will build a capitol here worthy of Southern California, and will furnish the city with office room, we will donate this block for that purpose. Let those who handle the finances and do business for the city do as they would for themselves, and let the old fossils who have been holding their money in reserve for years to buy houses and lots on foreclosures when the final day of judgment comes, howl and cry jobbery, but go ahead and the city's interests will not suffer at their hands.

I am in favor of the deal. F.

INCONTROVERTIBLE ARGUMENTS AGAINST REMOVING THE SITE.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 15.—[To the Editor of THE TIMES.] I wish to correct a misstatement in Mr. Humphreys's letter in regard to my estimate of the value of residence improvements south of Sixth street. My statement was to him: "The residence improvements would aggregate one-fourth more in value south than north of Sixth street." That is, if there were $4,000,000 of residence improvements north, there were $5,000,000 south of Sixth street.

I am not an advocate of the Sixth-street site, or any change, as I consider the change already made is greatly to the advantage of the city. Any thoughtful man will see that a much more desirable building can be built on a corner lot 160x120 than on an inside one 180x160. You can get more light, more air and more available space on the corner lot, with greater architectural effect.

My idea of a proper site for a city hall is that which is most accessible to the whole population. Every taxpayer, every citizen, has business at the City Hall; hence it should be located as near as practicable to the converging point of all the street railway systems.

First and Main streets are but one block from every street-railway line in the city, and every franchise converges within one block of this point; hence the nearer in the City Hall is located to this point, the better for the whole population.

To reach the Sixth-street location at least one-half the population would have to pay two railroad fares, whereas you have, or might have, a location that can be reached from every part of the city with one railroad fare. If the mass of the population is to be considered, this is important.

Today four-fifths of the population and all the business is north of Sixth street, and the growth of population is greater north than south of Sixth. (See the vote of the First, Second and Third wards.)

And, while I know Mr. Humphreys is honest in his advocacy of the Sixth-street site, and admit that section has the most valuable residences, yet I think him mistaken in his advocacy of the site.

Population is and always will be more dense north than south of Sixth street, and this being a popular government, the majority should be considered. "The greatest good to the greatest number."

Respectfully yours,
O. MORGAN.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—Tomorrow evening the Boston Howard Athenæum specialty company will open a five-night engagement. The company is highly spoken of by the eastern press.

HAZARD'S PAVILION.—On Saturday and Sunday evening the Lewis Monte Cristo Company will hold the boards at this popular place.

MEN AND WOMEN OF THE STATE.

Gov. Waterman arrived at San Diego on Saturday.

J. B. Crawford of Riverside is visiting San Diego.

M. M. Drew, ex-United States Marshal, is visiting San Francisco.

Ed D. Taylor, son of Hon. L. S. Taylor of Sacramento, has gone to San Diego to live.

Surveyor-General Hammond of San Francisco has received a 30 days' leave of absence, and will spend it in Washington.

Dr. John L. Meares, Health Officer of San Francisco, who has been lying ill at his residence, 1408 California street, for over a month, died Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock. The immediate cause of death was scirrhosis of the liver. Deceased was 66 years of age, and had lived in San Francisco many years. For over 12 years he was Health Officer, succeeding Dr. Henry Gibbons, Jr. Before that he was Quarantine Officer. He was a graduate of Jefferson Medical College of Pennsylvania, class of '46.

Secretary Fairchild's Sharp Practice.

His Efforts to Humbug Congress on the Tariff Question.

Lamar's Nomination to Come Before the Senate Today.

Result of the Wool Men's Conference—The House to Take Immediate Action on Carlisle's Case—The Week's Work Mapped Out for Congress.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—[Special.] A Washington special to the Chronicle says: Secretary Fairchild has sent to Congress three letters in regard to tariff revision. It appears that the Secretary has addressed a communication to the leading dealers in foreign fruits in New York city asking them to express their views regarding the relief urgently needed by them from the tariff on foreign fruits. It does not appear anywhere that he has addressed letters of inquiry to producers in California or elsewhere outside of New York asking their views regarding foreign fruits. He has thus acquired a mass of ex-parte information which he has transmitted to Congress, and which has been printed at the public expense, to inform the House and Senate that the tariff on foreign fruits should be reduced. California fruits have entered into such active competition with foreign fruits, especially canned fruits, that dealers in New York in foreign fruits already feel that their business is injured, and it is. To this class of people Secretary Fairchild appeals for testimony that the tariff on foreign fruits should be reduced. Frank S. Robinson & Co. of New York city, dealers in foreign fruits, conclude their letter to the Secretary as follows:

"Hundreds and thousands of our citizens depend for their living on the continuance of the traffic in foreign fruits, and as the object of legislation will be to reduce taxation, the interests of the fruit people and consumers should receive some consideration, particularly as the business cannot endure the existence of a high duty. Dealers in foreign fruits have suffered, as a large decline by reason of California competition, as dealers in Malaga raisins have suffered, as was shown by the petition of the Malaga raisin producers to the American Minister at Madrid."

The following are further extracts from the letter of Robinson & Co.:

"Oranges and lemons cannot be classified as a luxury, but must be considered as an actual necessity, conducive of the health of our community, and encouraging sobriety, and the imposition of a heavy duty on such a commodity is laying on our people an unjust burden, superfluous and unreasonable. Bananas and pineapples are free. Oranges and lemons, in consequence, should also be placed on the free list. This country exports from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 barrels of apples annually and the same are admitted free in England, while about 1,000,000 barrels of oranges from the British possessions are here taxed 55 cents per barrel, which is evidently unjust. We should follow England's system and open our ports to free competition for the benefit of consumers. There is no logic in taxing the majority for the benefit of a few, particularly when the few require no protection, but only desire protection in order to obtain better returns for productions of the soil, and to the detriment and discomfort of consumers."

There is no longer any doubt that oranges, lemons, limes, English walnuts, almonds, canned fruits, jellies, jams and wine will be assailed by the Cleveland bill. The three rules which Cleveland adopted last fall in outlining his bill will be closely adhered to.

First—All necessaries should go on the free list.

Second—All articles which are producing only a small revenue should go on the free list.

Third—The tariff on all articles which pay more than 45 per cent. ad valorem should be reduced to that amount. W.

FIGHTING FREE WOOL.

A Return to the Tariff of 1867 Demanded.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] After the adoption of resolutions at the wool conference yesterday, a committee consisting of Columbus Delano of Ohio, president of the National Woolgrowers' Association, William Whitman of Boston, president of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers, and Edward A. Green of Philadelphia, president of the Wool Merchants' Association, was appointed to present to Congress a schedule of customs duties adopted by the conference, and the convention adjourned sine die. The schedule adopted by the conference is similar in many respects to the tariff of 1867. All classes remain identical with the existing wool tariff rates. Duties, however, are increased as follows: On wool of the first class and second class, where the value is 32 cents or less per pound 11 per cent. ad valorem is added to the existing duty of 10 cents per pound. When the value exceeds 32 cents per pound there is an addition of 10 per cent. ad valorem to the present rate of 12 cents per pound. On wools of the third class, the value of which is 12 cents or less per pound, the duty is increased ¼ cent to 3 cents per pound. When the value exceeds 12 cents per pound the duty is increased from 5 to 6 cents per pound. No wool shall be included in class three which shall be imported for any purpose other than the manufacture of carpets or low grades of blankets. The existing duty on wool on skins remains untouched, with the exception of a provision for sheep skins imported with wool, washed or unwashed, on which the duty is fixed at 30 per cent. ad valorem on the skins alone.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Battle Over Lamar's Nomination to Be Fought at Once.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The Senate is expected to go into secret session after the morning hour tomorrow, and to enter at once upon the consideration of the nomination of Lamar, Vilas and Dickinson, and continue in secret session until these are disposed of.

The direct tax bill, which has been discussed at length in the morning hours, will probably be voted upon within two or three days, and Senator Blair will try to secure action this week upon the Education Bill.

The Deficiency Bill is in the hands of the sub-committee of the Committee on Appropriations, and will be brought into the Senate in time for action before next Saturday. The regular order will be temporarily laid aside from time to time, whenever the Senators wish to deliver speeches on other subjects, and among the expected events of this nature is a speech being probably upon current politics by Senator Ingalls.

PROGRAMME FOR THE HOUSE.

If Chairman Crisp of the House Committee on Elections can complete his report upon Thomas Carlisle's contested election by noon tomorrow the matter will be at once laid before the House, and, as a question of the highest privilege, will command immediate attention, and should the report not be ready it will be in order tomorrow for the committee to move to suspend the rules and pass the measures that have received their sanction. But only a few committees will be able to take advantage of the opportunity, for the reason that the time has been insufficient with a majority in which to perfect the bills referred to them.

WORK OF THE FLAMES.

Large Fire in New York—A Minneapolis Church Burned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Three five-story brick buildings, Nos. 54, 56 and 58 Warren street, were completely gutted by fire today and the adjoining building, No. 52, was badly damaged. The loss on the buildings is $50,000, and on the stock of 18 firms occupying them, $100,000.

A COSTLY CHURCH BURNED.

MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.), Jan. 15.—At 8:30 this mprning fire was discovered in the Church of the Redeemer (Universalist). The church cost $80,000. The fire was caused by the janitor's son starting a fire in the furnace, which was undergoing repairs. The firemen found it almost impossible to reach the flames, and fought them all day long with the mercury ranging from 22° to 30° below zero. Nothing but the walls are left. The loss is placed at $70,000, with an insurance of $50,000. During the day nine firemen were overcome by the dense smoke which poured from the building.

NEW MEXICO.

The Territory's Financial Affairs Much Improved.

SANTA FE (N. M.), Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The Herald, in a statement of the financial condition of New Mexico, says: Gov. Ross urged the last Legislature to fund the outstanding warrants and bring the Territory at once to a cash basis. Though the Legislature neglected doing so, it took away the tax-paying power of the warrants, providing for the issue and sale of bonds and the payment of current expenses for eight months. The increased taxable values for 1887, and the prompt payment of taxes for that year so improved the financial condition of New Mexico that within the present year all warrants outstanding and to be issued during the year will be paid. The Territory's bonded debt is $400,000. The expenses are covered by a rate of taxation of 1½ per cent. Immigration is increasing, and greater investments of eastern capital are being made.

REVOLTING KNIGHTS.

The Rebellion Among Powderly's Followers Gaining Ground.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The dissatisfied members of the Knights of Labor of New York and vicinity have followed the example of their brethren of Chicago, Cincinnati and Philadelphia, and at a mass-meeting on Wednesday appointed a provisional committee against the present management of the order. The committee tonight issued a long manifesto, couched in much the same language as that prepared in Chicago, giving their reasons for rebelling, and calling on all locals to join them.

Arrested on an Old Charge.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—W. J. Gallagher, just released from Joliet Prison, where he served a term for participation in the notorious ballot-box frauds, nearly depriving Gen. Logan of his seat in the Senate, has been rearrested for a forgery committed eight years ago in forging the name of Abraham Bromson of Philadelphia to a note for a small amount. There will be a habeas corpus hearing tomorrow in his behalf, and if the writ is denied he will be taken to Philadelphia.

Strikers Get Badly Left.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 15.—None of the striking printers of the Courier-Journal returned to their cases at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and their places were filled. An hour later President Aimison of the International Typographical Union called upon President Haldeman of the paper and sought a conference, but Haldeman told him that the new men had been put on the cases to stay.

Struck by a Locomotive.

SHARON (Pa.), Jan. 15.—Stephen and Samuel Byer and Joseph Katep were struck by the New York fast express on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad, yesterday evening, and instantly killed. The men were in a buggy when the express struck them. They were all married, and leave families.

Prominent Lawyer Dead.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), Jan. 15.—Hon. Oscar B. Hord, once Attorney-General of the State, a prominent and widely-known lawyer, died tonight, aged 58. He was prostrated on Tuesday by a stroke of apoplexy and never rallied.

Locomotives Destroyed.

FT. WORTH (Tex.), Jan. 15.—The Missouri Pacific roundhouse, with 12 locomotives, was burned. Loss, $100,000; probably insured.

Death of Gen. Underwood.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—Gen. A. B. Underwood, for 23 years Surveyor of the Port of Boston, died yesterday afternoon at pneumonia.

Grandma Garfield Failing Fast.

MENTOR (O.), Jan. 15.—Grandma Garfield is constantly growing weaker and it is thought that she can live but a few days.

Scrappers.

Ed Croge and H. G. Haines were arrested on Los Angeles street about 8 o'clock last night by officers Sheets and Purvis for disturbing the peace. They had been indulging in a little "scrapping" match, and Haines had evidently got the worst of the fun, judging from the appearance of his face when brought to the station.

T. B. Hall, John Daley and William Lyon got into a fight on Upper Main street yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The trio were taken in and booked for drunk. One of the men had his head badly battered.

A Bad Hole.

About 1 o'clock this morning a man named Tom Barrett, who lives at No. 225 High street, fell into the excavation on New Main street, next to the Sentous block. His groans attracted the attention of Officer Marden, who, with the assistance of some bystanders, fished him out and brought him to the station, where he was found to be severely injured, and Dr. Thompson was telephoned for. This is one of the most dangerous places in the city, and the attention of the city authorities has been repeatedly called to it. Last night there was but one lantern burning.

Two Toughs.

A couple of toughs named Dan O'Brien and William Kelley were booked by Officers Lynch and Donahue yesterday morning at 1 o'clock for vagrancy. The officers overheard them talking about going through an old man for his watch, and, as they were hard cases, took them in as a precautionary measure.

A Hard Case.

James Jones was arrested by Sergt. Jeffries last night about 9:30 o'clock for committing a nuisance in front of the Club Theater, on Main street. He was drunk at the time, and was locked up.

A Black Shawl.

Mrs. M. H. Merrill, who lives at the Marlborough, on Ellis avenue, lost a black shawl with a broad white-embroidered border of a peculiar pattern, on Figueroa street, near Washington.

Lost Horse.

A bay horse was picked up by Officer Walsh this morning about 12:30 o'clock, on Los Angeles street, and placed in the city pound.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Scores of Persons Perish in the Blizzard.

An Appalling List of Victims in Dakota and Nebraska.

The Cold Wave Extending as Far South as Texas.

Frosty Weather on the Pacific Coast—Very Cold in Arizona—The Northern Citrus Belt Still Frozen Up—Low Temperature at Sacramento.

By Telegraph to The Times.

ST. PAUL (Minn.), Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Additional fatalities from the cold weather reported are: At Adrian, Minn., Mrs. Nutson of Bushmore, was found frozen to death; two men at Pringhar, Iowa; two men between Marion Junction and Bridgewater; one man near White Lake; two boys and 95 head of cattle near Larchwood, Iowa; four school children near Lennox.

HURON (Dak.), Jan. 15.—A young son of James Newcomb, returning from school, was found frozen. Adam Gerner of Iroquois, has not been heard from.

GARBY (Dak.), Jan. 15.—Charles Staltzenberg of Altamont, started to procure a coffin for his dead son and has not been heard from. Two children of Joseph Hutchinson, living west of here, perished while going home from school.

SIOUX FALLS (Dak.), Jan. 15.—A lady teacher named Jacobson and a pupil named Gunde C. Runstom, a farmer and two others, names not known, were found frozen to death in this section.

YANKTON (Dak.), Jan. 15.—At Lesterville Jacob Krutz died from cold and his wife was badly frozen. Frederick Milberger may die from exposure. Another man, name unknown, is known to have been frozen. Three deaths are reported from Tyndall, Bonhomme county, and two girls died near Wakenda, Clay county.

FLANDREAU (Dak.), Jan. 15.—It is reported that a lady school teacher in the northern part of this county was frozen to death.

MILLER (Dak.), Jan. 15.—The body of J. W. Cassler, a wealthy farmer lost in Thursday's blizzard, was found this morning about two miles from his house.

FAULKTON (Dak.), Jan. 15.—Emma Lamar, a school teacher, southwest of here, and Carrie Uman, a pupil, were frozen to death on Wednesday night.

MORE VICTIMS.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 15.—The following deaths by freezing, in addition to last night's list, are reported: Near Mitchell, Dak., a young man named Munger; Mrs. Phillips and son of Alpera, Jerrold county, Dak.; an unknown man near Aberdeen, Dak.; at Winddemere, a school teacher and two pupils; at Fulda, Minn., the 12-year-old son of John Walsh; at Tracy, Minn., Tom Anderson, a farmer, is missing. Belgrade, Mont., reports the death of several cowboys in Madison Valley.

Last night and today have been exceedingly cold all over the Northwest. At Brainard it was 58° below at 5 o'clock this morning; at Bird Island, 38° below this morning; at Fairbault, 47° below last night; at Duluth, 34° below today; at Clearwater, 63° below this morning.

NEBRASKA'S DEATH LIST.

LINCOLN (Neb.), Jan. 15.—Reports of fatalities from Thursday's storm are still coming in. Mrs. P. Smith was frozen to death at Woodham. John Sparks, an ex-member of the Legislature, was found frozen dead nine miles from Beatrice. Emil Crossman of Peru, a farm laborer, was found dead within 20 yards of his house. A child, named Bedine, is reported missing near Nebraska City. All trains are delayed.

OMAHA, Jan. 15.—The bodies of an old lady named Mrs. Chapman and her two grandchildren, lost Thursday near Stuart, Neb., were found yesterday.

THE BLIZZARD IN TEXAS.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—Dispatches from a dozen places in Northern Texas say the blizzard reached that part of the State yesterday afternoon, and that the mercury fell from 40° to 60°, reaching almost zero at some points. High winds are prevailing, and sleet and snow fell in an unprecedented manner. Advices from the Panhandle say that the mercury fell to 2° above zero, and that cattle were drifting before the storm and suffering badly.

BITTER COLD AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Sixteen below zero is recorded by the government thermometer here at midnight. The indications are that the mercury will go much lower before daylight.

Four decrees below was the highest temperature during the day. A total absence of wind mitigates the cold materially. There is much hardship in the poor districts of the city, however, and the police stations and other public shelters are crowded to their utmost capacity by homeless waifs.

ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

The Cold in Arizona—The Northern Belt Frozen Up.

KINGMAN (Ariz.), Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] The severe storm of last week has abated, but the weather continues cold. This morning was one of the coldest of the season, the mercury registering 5° above zero. The snow at this place has been four inches deep, and in the mountains and cañons from two to six feet. Roads are rendered impassable. Mining operations are suspended. Stockmen are also complaining.

IN THE NORTHERN BELT.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 15.—This was the coldest day ever known here. At daybreak the thermometer was from 4° to 8° below zero.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 15.—The cold wave is the second in severity in the city's history. The mercury registered 19° today.

PETALUMA, Jan. 15.—Petaluma Creek was covered with ice this morning for some distance below navigation. The thermometer registers 17°, the lowest ever reached here.

RIVERSIDE, Jan. 15.—The thermometer this morning was 27° above.

SANTA ROSA, Jan. 15.—Last night was the coldest of the season. The mercury went down to 14°.

Fatal Fall.

PORTLAND (Or.), Jan. 15.—The body of Angus McKay, second mate of the British bark Peebleshire, was found lying on the ice this morning, partly submerged. The face was badly cut. He had been spending part of the night with the mate of another vessel, and it is supposed that on his return he slipped on the gangplank and fell a distance of 30 feet, striking against the vessel.

Butchered His Wife and Children.

ST. PAUL (Minn.), Jan. 15.—A Princeton special says: A Swede living 20 miles from here is said to have killed his wife and seven children, chopping their heads off with a broadax. A boy of 14 jumped from an upstairs window and escaped. When asked by a neighbor what he had done, the murderer replied, "What I intended to do for a long time."

Dwelling Burned.

SALEM (Or.), Jan. 15.—The residence of T. G. Albert, in the University Addition, caught fire from a chimney flue today, and was burned almost to the ground. Most of the furniture was saved. Loss, $1000; insurance, $500.

Suicided.

MARYSVILLE, Jan. 15.—William Henry, a sheepherder, who until lately has been in the employ of Houtz, in Colusa county, committed suicide at the United States Hotel early this morning by taking a dose of strychnine. He was without means, suffering mentally.

PETALUMA, Jan. 15.—Mrs. Wyatt attempted suicide by drowning here today, because her son, upon whom she depended mainly for support, was married.

An Anti-Poverty Benefit.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A benefit was tendered Miss Munier, leader of the choir of the Anti-Poverty Society, and who lost position in St. Stephen's Church and other Catholic institutions through her stand in the defense of Dr. McGlynn. The benefit netted her $1500. It was given at the Academy of Music.

Cut in Two by the Cars.

TULARE, Jan. 15.—A boy named Henry Peterson, who was stealing a ride, was run over by the cars this afternoon and instantly killed. His body was cut in two.

Death of Consul Walker.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—George Walker, late Consul-General of the United States at Paris, died of pneumonia at his residence in this city this afternoon, aged 64.

The Frost at Pomona.

[Pomona Times.]

There has been some fear expressed that the recent cold nights and low temperature might have injured young trees and the present crop of fruit now hanging. The subject was thoroughly canvassed this morning to ascertain the exact result of the cold, and the replies to questions about it have been very flattering to our valley. Men who have had the largest experience as residents here say that no damage has been done.

Though all the damage resulting from the cold may not be apparent for some days yet, still an experienced eye can tell very nearly if the frost has been injurious. Even lemons show no sign of being barmed, and the leaves are, in most cases, as crisp and green as they were two months ago. Tender leaves of young nursery stock, in some places, have been slightly nipped, and the new growth on some of the older orange trees show that Jack Frost has been there. The blizzards in the East and contemporaneous cold waves all over the States, as shown by the dispatches, give us cause for congratulating Pomona on the lightness and rarity of her frosts.

Keep the Scalebug Out.

[San Jacinto Register.]

So far, San Jacinto Valley has been fortunate in keeping out the scale pests which has been enjoyed by some of our neighboring towns. The majority of our citizens are probably aware of the necessity of keeping out the scalebug. Every precaution should be taken by our citizens, and trees thoroughly examined before allowed to enter the valley. In fact the citizens should hold a mass meeting and a fruit inspector be appointed. The meeting can't be called too soon. "Don't lock the stable door after the horse is gone." Remember that a great many acres of land will be set to fruit trees this season in San Jacinto Valley. Now, if we are to keep it out, stringent measures must be adopted immediately. Only last week we were shown by a prominent citizen some apples which were literally covered by the scalebug. The apples were brought into the valley by a peddler. So you see how many ways the pest can be brought here. So, remember what we say, take time by the forelock and look into this all-important matter.

The Marquis Borax.

[Sacramento Bee.]

Who is Governor of the State of California? Echo answers, "Who?" In the San Francisco Chronicle this morning is a report of an interview held yesterday with Gov. Waterman. The fact of the matter is that Waterman was not in this city yesterday afternoon, and, therefore, could not have been interviewed. Boruck is in the habit of buttonholing correspondents, filling them full of what his own alleged brain is conceiving, and then instructing them to put it down as an interview with "the Governor." And yet Waterman never objects, never complains, never even attempts to explain. All hail, thou Boruck! The people of the State of California salute thee and thy man Friday, Waterman!

The San Bernardino Postoffice.

[Index.]

At last it is definitely settled where the postoffice is to be removed to. A very large three-story brick building is to be erected on the southeast corner of E and Court streets by Messrs. Anderson & Drew, reaching from Court street to the brewery building. Besides the room to be occupied as a postoffice, there will be three other stores in the building and the upper floors will probably be used for lodging purposes. The postoffice is to have a lease for five years free of rent. When the news was made known yesterday quite a ripple in the real-estate market occurred and prices jumped to $400 per front foot on E street.

Rapid Railroad Building.

[Oceanside Star.]

Two hundred and twelve miles of road have been built by Grant Bros. in 13 months, a record without a parallel in the history of railroading. Gulches, deep cuts and fills and tunnels innumerable encountered them during the past year, but men and money, coupled with a thorough knowledge of the work, have made them successful. All of their immense outfits passed through town recently en route to Los Angeles. Grant's outfit numbered 1000 mules, with the necessary wagons, tents, scrapers, plows, etc.

The Los Angeles "Times."

[The Citrograph, Redlands.]

This progressive and sterling paper came out on January 1st with a 56-page edition, devoted to South California's resources and progress. Of course, the major portion was taken up with Los Angeles county, as it should be, but every section was described by well-written articles, and the whole number showed evidence of much care in its preparation. Over 8000 pounds of paper were used, and the make-up and press-work were uncommonly good. Los Angeles may well feel proud of her metropolitan journal, and should give it a generous support.

Eugenie and Victor Reconciled.

[London World.]

There has been a complete reconciliation between the Empress Eugenie and Prince Victor Bonaparte. The empress visited Brussels the other day, and her young relative met her at the station, dined and breakfasted with her at the Hotel Bellevue, and escorted her to the new picture galleries. Prince Victor is to visit the Empress at Amsterdam, and he will come to England to be present at the reinterment of the coffins of the late Emperor Napoleon and his son at Farnborough.

Seal, or Seal Plush?

[Hartford Post.]

"I want your advice very much, Cicely, dear. Would you by a seal or seal-plush cloak, if you were in my place?"

"Well, of course, I can't say. Seals are growing scarcer every year."

"But I hear that they are not killing so many plushes this year as usual."

Young Ralston's Death a Case of Suicide.

Portland Boarding-House Wrecked by an Exploding Boiler.

Confession of One of the Mexican Central Robbers.

Texas Cow Woman's Deadly Dagger—Letter from Editor Rosford and Preacher Small Tangled Up in a Sensational Libel Case.

Dispatch to The Times.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] At the Coroner's inquest today over the remains of Samuel Ralston, his death was shown to have been a case of deliberate suicide.

Ralston left a brief note addressed to his mother, saying that he was sorry for the act, but nothing more; and all are at a loss to assign a cause, unless it was ill health. His financial affairs were satisfactory.

Mrs. C. Ralston was present at the inquest, having brought his brother's remains to Auburn, to be taken to San Francisco tomorrow.

A BAD GANG.

Confession of One of the Mexican Central Robbers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] An El Paso (Tex.) letter to the Examiner says: Doc Hines, under bond, the suspected Mexican Central robber, taken to Chihuahua, consented to by the Mayor of Paso del Norte to investigate the robbery. He says: "The leader of the band was Charles Small, there were five others besides, Small and myself coming down from Arizona. Our headquarters were at Heathe's ranch, nearly 50 miles south of Chihuahua, for the last two weeks. On the night of the robbery we left Magnis about an hour before the train arrived. Hutchinson held up the engineer and fireman and I went for the express car. I got for my share $100 Mexican and $50 Mexican gold. I had it in my boot when arrested."

Hines refused to give his true name. A dispatch from Chihuahua announces the capture of the gang's leader by Mexican troops about 30 miles below there. All the rest will undoubtedly be shots as this is the penalty for train robbery in Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Trouble Among Workmen—Dr. Meares' Funeral—Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] At a meeting of non-union employés of the Kreling furniture factory last night, on what they would enter the union agreed upon, and a committee was appointed to confer with the Federation.

The funeral services of the late Health Officer, Dr. John L. Meares today, were attended by a large number of citizens and many organizations. The remains were placed in the vault of Mrs. R. Porter Ashe, at Lone Mountain Cemetery.

Hon. F. L. Mansfield, who arrived here yesterday from New York, has been stopping from the Palace Hotel to the Occidental, suffering from what is said to be a cold contracted in the sleeping-car en route.

IT WENT OFF.

Steaming-House Kitchen Boiler on the Rampage.

PORTLAND (Or.), Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] A stationary boiler in the basement of the Garfield House exploded this morning. A halfbreed Indian girl, employed in the kitchen, was struck by a piece of the boiler, and had her ribs broken, and was thrown toward a window, through which she crashed, cutting her face and hands badly. She was taken to the hospital, and will recover.

The explosion completely wrecked the kitchen and so alarmed the boarders in the dining-room that they ran over each other. Mrs. St. Clair, and trampled severely in their hurry to escape.

The thermometer this evening is 3° below zero, the coldest ever known here.

RILEY'S DANDER.

Assessed to the Extent of Suing Editor Munford.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 15.—[By the Associated Press.] Henry B. Dixey, the actor, has filed affidavits charging the Kansas City Times with criminal libel. The writs were served on Dr. Munford, the editor, yesterday evening, and he was released on his own recognizance to appear Monday morning. The trouble arose over a sermon of the evangelist, Sam Small, on Friday night, in which he denounced Dixey with gambling in San Francisco. Dixey tried to have Small called to account, and failing in that, instituted suit against the paper. Small has been subpœnaed as a witness.

Stabbed by a Woman.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 15.—At the Capital saloon yesterday evening Charles E. Lovett was stabbed in the side and abdomen with a knife by Mrs. H. G. Coleman, who was separated from her husband and another in a fight that ensued. The wounds are not considered serious.

Base-Ball.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—St. Louis, 0; New York, 5. King and Bushong were the batteries for St. Louis; Van Haltren and Keefe for New York. Attendance, 9000.

Current Interest in Cancer.

The sudden public interest in cancer, caused by the St. James Gazette, shows how true it is that people are blind even to the most obvious facts until something happens to direct special attention to them. Cancer is by no means an unfamiliar disease, and for years has been steadily increasing in this country. The deaths from it were per 10,000 persons living about 5.5, which is a higher rate than that of the deaths from croup, dropsy, water on the kidney disease and others, more is heard. In view of these which has recently taken place in 1851-'55 the rate per 10,000 of living was 3.68), it is certainly desirable that special inquiry be made into the cause of this malady, with a view to the prevention of a disease, which, when established, is now incurable. Years ago there was published in Times a "cancer map" of Great Britain, showing that the disease is almost entirely absent from high level districts, very prevalent in low-lying marshy regions. The lesson deduced from it was that persons constitutionally liable to cancer, should, if possible, live in high and dry neighborhoods.

Farmers Wanted.

[San Bernardino Index.]

Barley is selling all over the valley at $20 a ton, and this is only $5 above the price it regularly brings in the winter months. Milk cows are high in spite of the large amount of the latter shipped in from the North. Eggs and poultry are scarce and economical housekeepers get along with as little as possible. What is the lesson that such facts teach? It is that there is no section under the sun where a man with a little money and a disposition to work can more easily, not simply get a good living, but very shortly acquire a competency. There are many thousand acres of land in this valley (and we mean this valley, not simply this end of it, for it extends from Crafton to Rincon) adapted to alfalfa and the raising of grain for hay, which can be bought cheap and on easy terms and upon which a good farmer can grow rich. No fruit growing offers so sure returns, although it has greater fascination for the ordinary easterner, from the possibilities it presents. But for a good, safe, reliable calling, for one who hasn't the capital to engage in orange growing there is nothing better. The country needs development in this direction, for the growth in this department of industry has not kept pace with that of the country as a whole. The fact that it will pay an income from the first year, and this without the need of working a great area, as in the East, should not be lost sight of. The market is unlimited and prices sure to be well maintained for all farm produce. Eastern farmers will do well to take up here their old calling, where it is without those climatic drawbacks to which they have been accustomed, and which have so compelled a loss of time as to interfere with its perfect success. Ten acres of alfalfa, yielding two tons at a cutting, five times in a season, at $15 per ton, means $1500. Ten acres more in corn, squashes, small fruits, etc., with a little stock and poultry to add to the resources, would make a good farmer about as independent as anywhere in the world. It is a wonder that so very few who come here with thrifty northern methods thoroughly learned take up this branch of the work. It may not pay like orange growing, but it takes less capital, and will bring a sure income without the care and worry which come with a heavy investment in a department in which they are without experience. This is, par excellence, the place for fruit growing; but the country needs growth in other directions as well, and a poor man cannot wait for oranges and walnuts to come into bearing. Plant more alfalfa and barley, attempt to supply the local market with milk, butter and eggs, and you will be sure to find yourself more prosperous than you could hope to be in the uncertain climate of the East, though working six times the amount of land.

A Fine Country Home.

[San Jacinto Register.]

We had an occasion to visit the magnificent residence and fine farm of our enterprising and energetic citizen James Kerr, situated at the east end of Central avenue and commanding an excellent view of the surrounding country. The residence is built of brick, neatly furnished and surrounded by porticos, over which vines have been trained, making the appearance quite enlivening. There is an artesian well near the house from which water is raised by means of a wind pump to a large tank, from which it is carried through pipes over the yard, the effects of which are seen in the beautiful green clover which covers the yard, and the rich livid green of all the shrubs and plants.

Mr. Kerr has 40 acres of alfalfa from which he estimates to have raised about seven tons to the acre or 280 tons for the season. In addition to this he has about 40 tons of barley hay, making over 300 tons. He was offered $15 per ton all around for his hay, which would have realized him the neat sum of $4800 for the year's profit beside furnishing green pasturage for 30 head of horses and cattle. Who says farming doesn't pay in California? Among the stock shown us were 10 head of fine blooded brood mares, one of which he paid $450 for when a small colt. Mr. Kerr has indeed one of the finest ranches in the valley, and it pays, and pays well. Afterward, other points of interest were shown us which, for lack of space, we cannot mention in this issue.

Economical Husband and Wise Wife.

[Chicago Herald.]

When a woman forms a habit it is all a waste of time for her husband to try to break her of it. Well knowing his wife's disposition to make him a present regularly at Christmas, a man who likewise forcibly realized the fact that economy was an absolute necessity in his household, said to his wife: "This year you must not undertake to make me a present, I insist. It would be absurd to do so at this time, when we need everything we can rake and scrape. I give you fair notice that if you do carry out your former custom this year I will burn up the present as surely as you make it." So the wife bethought herself. She could not bear the idea of being deprived of her annual pleasure. Therefore she gathered together her savings and bought for her dearly beloved, as a Christmas present, a ton of coal.

She Was Unmarried.

[Tid-Bits.]

He (at a Chicago evening entertainment): Do you know that very brilliant-looking woman at the piano, Miss Breezy?

Miss Breezy: Oh, yes, intimately. I will be glad to present you, Mr. Waldo.

He: Thanks. Is she an unmarried lady?

Miss Breezy: Yes, she has been unmarried twice.

Balfour Charged with Cruelty Toward the Parnellite Prisoners.

Ominous Movements of Troops by Russia and Austria.

Ex-President Grevy Prostrated by Apoplexy—Mexico Inviting American Immigration—Serious Church Troubles in Ecuador—Cholera in Chili.

By Telegraph to The Times.

DUBLIN, Jan. 15.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Freeman's Journal says that Mr. Blunt has made a statement of the grounds on which he fears for the Parnellites, who are imprisoned. While in the south of England in September, he met Mr. Balfour, who said that he intended to imprison the physically weakest of the Parnellites, adding that he felt sorry for Dillon, who had some good about him, and who would die in prison, as he would get six months, and was in bad health. After the Mitchelltown affair, Blunt warned O'Brien and Dillon, and to this he says he attributes Balfour's virulence at the Portumna trial, and that he feels unsafe in the latter's hands.

Balfour says: "The story is a ridiculous lie. I don't believe Blunt ever made the assertion attributed to him."

The people are incensed at the police for making seizures while tenants are in bed.

At Skibbereen, today, Bishop Ross preached a sermon vehemently denouncing the coercion act. He said the time would come when no half measures would suffice.

A conflict occurred at Gweedore yesterday between peasants and a party of police collecting rates. A woman was stabbed with a bayonet, a girl was wounded with a truncheon and other persons were more or less seriously injured. Two arrests were made.

GALWAY, Jan. 15.—Wilfred Blunt has been moved to a warmer cell in prison, and his overcoat has been returned to him. Today a band tried to serenade him, but was prevented by the police. The people are excited and a row is feared.

A COWARDLY COXSWAIN.

DUBLIN, Jan. 15.—As a result of the official inquiry into the loss of the ship Alfred D. Snow, the coxswain of the Dunsmore life boat, who resigned his position rather than attempt to save the crew, has been pronounced guilty of cowardice. It is held that the crew could have been saved if the life boat had been launched.

MORE WAR TALK.

VIENNA, Jan. 15.—It is stated that Count Kalnoky, in reply to Prince Lobanoff, the Russian ambassador, who had given an intimation as to the movements of Russian troops, said that he had taken a note thereof and could respond by saying that Austria cherished equally peaceful intentions, but it would be for the military councils to judge of the situation created by the advance of troops. Reports are current that the Second Caucasian Army Corps has been ordered to proceed to the Austro-Roumanian frontier. It is stated that the Government has decided to begin the movement of troops at an early date. It will send large reinforcements of Hungarian troops to Transylvania.

The Warsaw Journal semi-officially announces that barracks to the number of 80 will be constructed at three points on the Prussian frontier—Suvalki, Kalviria and Maryampol.

MINISTER M'LEAN'S REPLY.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Minister McLean, in a letter to Marquis Rochambeau regretting his inability to attend a banquet, says: "It is to the ancient association of French and American soldiers on the battlefields of the New World that is due the strong current of sympathy which has never ceased to draw France and America together."

MEXICO FAVORING IMMIGRATION.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 15.—Advices from Mexico say that President Diaz and Cabinet have announced that they will do all in their power to encourage American immigration, especially into Lower California and lands of the International Company. In deference, however, to the anti-liberal agitation against such immigration, the administration has determined to enforce the law prohibiting foreigners from acquiring title to real estate within 20 leagues of the boundary lines.

GREVY ATTACKED WITH APOPLEXY.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Ex-President Grévy suffered a second stroke of apoplexy last Monday. He has since been confined to bed, physicians visiting him twice daily. His condition was kept secret as long as possible.

CLEVELAND'S LETTER TO THE POPE.

ROME, Jan. 15.—Archbishop Ryan handed the rector of the American Seminary President Cleveland's letter, with the volume of the American Constitution dedicated to the Pope. The rector will present them on the occasion of the Pope's reception to the American bishops, in order to avoid putting His Holiness to the fatigue of giving a special audience.

CHURCH TROUBLES IN ECUADOR.

GUAYAQUIL (via Galveston) Jan. 15.—The war council has sentenced to death Luna and Veles, two revolutionary chiefs taken lately in the province of Mandol. Great disorders are occurring in the church. Several clergy, have been confined by the bishop, and others have been ordered to pay fines. Many scandalous articles appear in the press.

NOTES.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Gladstone, through the newspapers, has again returned thanks for the large number of birthday congratulations which he received. The Daily News says there is no foundation to the report that Gladstone is going to Rome.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—While hunting at Rambouillot, yesterday, Gen. Bruger was severely wounded in the hip by the accidental discharge of a keeper's gun. President Carnot was one of the hunting party.

LIMA (via Galveston), Jan. 15.—The latest cholera returns cabled by the Peruvian medical commissioner in Chili show a decrease, but the epidemic continues in full force in the southern provices.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 15.—Two bands, who organized the rising in Bulgaria, were defeated by Turkish soldiers before they crossed the frontier.

KING HUMBERT.

A Description of the Italian Monarch —American Ladies of His Court.

[Kansas City Times.]

The slender, dark man, with a sad, solemn face, who can be seen any fair Sunday afternoon driving in the Borghese Gardens, outside the city of Rome, is Humbert, king of Italy. He is a very popular prince, and appears on all occasions, unattended, without the slightest fear of or danger of assassination. He is 40 years old, 10 of which he has sat on the throne of united Italy. He is personally brave, and devoted to horses and army life, and was a brilliant cavalry officer. He is deeply interested in naval affairs, and in endeavoring to create an Italian navy has spent more money than the financial condition of the country could afford. His manners are courteous and he makes a favorable impression upon all strangers who are admitted to his presence. He has a decidedly practical turn of mind and is fond of reading, especially works on national affairs and political economy. Humbert is devoted to his only child, a little boy about 10 years old. It is a pleasant sight to see him sitting on his father's knee, with his little earnest face, reflecting the inquiring mind of his father. The Queen is four or five years younger than the King, and speaks French, German and English, and is very fond of the literature of those countries, especially the works of Goethe and Shakespeare. She has enjoyed a great reputation for beauty among the princesses of Europe, but of late years she has grown almost too stout for grace. She is said to be very charitable, and a devout Catholic, notwithstanding the relations between the Vatican and the Quirinal.

There are five American ladies attached to the Italian court, all of whom have married Italian noblemen. One of these is the Marchesa Theodoli, formerly Miss Conrad of Philadelphia. She is the chief lady in waiting, and is the most beautiful woman in Italy. To be presented at court, it is necessary to have credentials showing the applicant to be a person holding a good social position. His moral status is not inquired into, as in the ante-room of the Vatican, prior to an audience with the Pope. It is sufficient to be a gentleman, a cavalier, anything, so long as your appearance, your purse and your indorsements are satisfactory. Entering the Quirinal, you are at once struck with the military appearance of the palace. Soldiers are everywhere. The reception takes place in the yellow-room of the palace, and the Marquis Stufa, the Grand Chamberlain, makes the presentation. The furniture of this apartment is yellow satin damask and a few bronze and marble statues adorn the room. The King, with the Queen leaning on his arm, walks around and talks pleasantly to the guests who have been presented. The King wears at these receptions a military uniform; the Queen wears a dress of some neutral tint, her ornaments being pearls and diamonds, of which she is very fond. The conversation generally is on some light topic of the day, with an occasional remark on literary or scientific subjects. An audience generally lasts half an hour. The King and Queen are very happy in their domestic relations. Every Sunday afternoon they drive in the Borghese Gardens, but in separate carriages, etiquette not permitting them to drive together. The King frequently holds the reins himself, with the Crown Prince sitting by his side. Roman society is divided into "blacks" and "whites," or the adherents of the Pope and King.

ALGERIAN WOMEN'S LIVES.

Married at 14 to Men They've Never Seen—Sitting on Tombstones.

[All the Year 'Round.]

The lives the women lead in Algiers, particularly if they are young and pretty, are simply terrible. When about 14 an Algerian girl is married—or rather sold, for it is scarcely more than a money transaction—to a man whom she has probably never seen, but who from that moment possesses absolute authority over her. If she belongs to the higher classes she is usually restricted, even in her husband's house, to one or two rooms. "If she were allowed to wander up and down stairs she might meet a man," the husband says.

The windows of the room into which she may go always look into a courtyard, not a public street, but for all that they are carefully covered with lattice-work, so that she may have no chance of holding communications with the outside world. The only amusement she is allowed to indulge in is a weekly visit to the cemetery, where she is supposed to go to mourn for the dead. This mourning, I must confess, is performed in a manner peculiar to the country. On Fridays, all men having been carefully excluded, the Algerine ladies drive, closely veiled, to the cemetery. Once inside the gates they throw aside their veils and, seating themselves upon the tombstones, prepare to make a day of it. They also go provided with a substantial luncheon, and they spend the whole day laughing, chatting and gossiping with their fellow-mourners.

At sunset they resume their veils, mount into their carriages and are driven back to their homes, which they will not quit until the following Friday. The most painful part of the fate of these women is that, although they may fulfill every duty of their position with the most perfect exactitude, and may even love their husbands tenderly, the law allows them to have no legal claim upon them. At any time of the day or night, if a man be wearied of his wife or for any reason desirous of being rid of her, he has only to lead her to the door, and, by pronouncing the simple words "you are divorced," he is free from her forever.

Red Head—White Horse.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

It is urged that an explanation of the alleged fact that where a red-headed girl is seen a white horse can always be discovered in her vicinity may be found in history and mythology. Among the early Greeks and Egyptians red-headed girls were decided belles. Men fought, bled and died for their smiles, and they were quite the rage. Cleopatra herself, we are told, was the possessor of an auburn head, and Helen of Troy, some contend, was equally fortunate. As is well known, the belief in the transmigration of souls was then prevalent, based upon reasons now lost to philosophy, and conspicuously-brave men killed in battle took the forms, under the smiles of Jupiter, of white horses.

We can imagine, then, when gallant knights went forth to battle after passionate adieus to their auburn-headed Helens and Cleopatras, and found themselves, after a fierce conflict with the barbarians, prancing steeds with snowy flanks, that memory of their lost loves dwelt in their equine heaus. It may be that these fellows, in the shape of white horses, are still following red-headed girls around.

There is no denying the fact that when a red-headed girl is pretty she is pretty—enough to fascinate a white horse or any other living thing—such a red-headed girl, for instance, as we have the authority of Solid Smith for saying abounds in Kentucky. "Her skin is softer than satin and whiter than snow. Her form falls away in voluptuous curves that make a man dream of the apples of Paradise bending down upon their golden boughs and dumbly pleading to be eaten. Her brown eyes are bright with a latent fire quickly enkindled from the touch of love, and burning with a soft heat that melts the heart of a man amid the sweet savors of delicious spices. The violets upon which her little foot presses die in ecstatic pain about her instep, joying to have been so blessed before annihilation. And the red blood which mantles her rounded velvet lips makes them glow until the roses turn pale in shame at the dullness of their color."

Surely a man of taste, whether in the form of a horse or not, would follow such a girl as long as he had the power of locomotion, and the explanation above advanced is satisfactory, provided there is anything to explain. We have made a thorough investigation of this matter, however, and have found that while a white horse may be generally discovered in the neighborhood of a red-headed girl, he is also invariably to be seen whenever a bow-legged man is observed.

Watch it and see if we are not right.

This being the case, a theory which will explain the presence of the white horse in one instance will hardly answer in the other, and is accordingly untenable.

Is it not time, then, to let up on this white horse business? He is no more loyal to the red-headed girl than the bow-legged man. Besides, the white horse has become a chestnut.

Hotel at Chico.

Liberal Offer of Citizens of Chico.

A First-Class Investment.

The citizens of Chico hereby announce that they will give to any one who will build a brick hotel in that city, half a block of land and $10,000 in cash. The hotel must cost at least $75,000, and must be erected on the land offered. The site selected is the most desirable in the city for the location of a first-class hotel, and is of the cash value of at least $10,000.

The State has recently located a Normal School at Chico, which is now in course of erection. The city is in one of the richest and most beautiful parts of California. It is a superior point for both business and tourist travel. These, among other reasons, lead us to the conclusion that a hotel of the character indicated, at Chico, will be a safe and lucrative investment, and do continuously a large and paying business.

We respectfully request capitalists and hotel men to consider and investigate this offer. For further particulars address,

Sheriff's Sale—No. 6052.

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE under execution. J. P. Monroe, administrator, with the will annexed, of the estate of Thomas Walsh, deceased, plaintiff, versus John W. Ellis, defendant.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, wherein J. P. Monroe, administrator aforesaid, is plaintiff, and John W. Ellis is defendant, upon a judgment rendered the 12th day of October, A.D. 1887, for the sum of sixty-eight hundred, fifty-four dollars and five cents ($6854.05) in lawful money of the United States, besides costs and interest, I have this day levied upon all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant, John W. Ellis, which he had on the 12th day of October, A.D. 1887, or at any time thereafter, of, in and to the following-described real estate, to wit: All that portion of block D, of Colima Park situated east of Belmont avenue, and lying between Silver street and Diamond street, according to map of said Colima Park, recorded in book 7, page 87, miscellaneous records of said county, including therein lots numbered one to twelve, in block marked T on map of Ellis' subdivision, of parts of lots 2 and 3, of block 38, Hancock's survey, recorded in book 10, page 88, miscellaneous records of said county; also lots numbered 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25, and lots 29, 30, 31 and 32, all fronting on Belmont avenue and all in block 9, according to said last mentioned map; reference is hereby made to each of said two maps for particular description.

Public notice is hereby given, that I will, on Thursday, the 2d day of February, A.D. 1888, at 12 o'clock m. of that day, in front of the courthouse door of the county of Los Angeles, on Spring street, sell at public auction, for cash in lawful money of the United States, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant, John W. Ellis, of, in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder.

Dated this 9th day of January, 1888.
JAMES C. KAYS,
Sheriff of Los Angeles County, California.

BEFORE PETERSBURG.

The Colored Troops Stopped Singing After the Battle of the Crater.

[September Century.]

"Any striking event or piece of news was usually eagerly discussed by the white troops, and in the ranks military critics were as plenty and perhaps more voluble than among the officers. Not so with the blacks; important news, such as that before us, after the bare announcement, was usually followed by long silence. They sat about in groups, 'studying,' as they called it. They waited, like the Quakers, for the spirit to move; when the spirit moved, one of their singers would uplift a mighty voice, like a bard of old, in a wild sort of chant. If he did not strike a sympathetic chord in his hearers, if they did not find in his utterance the exponent of their idea he would sing it again and again, altering sometimes the words, or more often the music. • If this change met general acceptance, one voice after another would chime in; a rough harmony of three parts would add itself; other groups would join his, and the song became the song of the command.

"The night we learned that we were to lead the charge (on the explosion of the Petersburg mine) the news filled them too full for ordinary utterance. The joyous Negro guffaw, always breaking out about the camp-fire, ceased. They formed circles in their company streets, and were sitting on the ground intently and solemnly 'studying.' At last a heavy voice began to sing, 'We-e li-ike me-en a-marchin' on, we looks li-ike men-er war.' Over and over again he sang it, making slight changes. The rest watched him intently; no sign of approval or disapproval escaped their lips or appeared on their faces. All at once, when his refrain had struck the right response in their hearts, his group took it up, and shortly half a thousand voices were upraised. It was a picturesque scene, these dark men, with their white eyes and teeth and full red lips, crouching over a smouldering camp-fire, in dusky shadow, with only the feeble rays of lanterns of the first sergeants, and the lights of the candles dimly showing through the tents. The sound was as wierd as the scene, when all the voices struck the low 'E' (last note but one), held it, and then rose to 'A' with a portamento as sonorous as it was clumsy. Until we fought the battle of the crater they sang this every night, to the exclusion of all other songs. After that defeat they sang it no more."

NEW ENGLAND TABLE GIRLS.

The Pretty and Learned Waiters at a Massachusetts Summer Resort.

[Lenox Letter to New York Times.]

The New England "table girl" is quite a character. She is not a waiter, nor a waitress, nor a kitchenmaid, but, as you will discover quickly, if you talk with her, a "table girl." She knows grammar, has been to school, and, perhaps, taught. She is quiet, if not austere, in her manner, but there is an ever-present consciousness with her that if the lightning should strike right she may be just where Mrs. Cleveland is now. In fact, she is inclined to pride, and it is sometimes dangerous to attempt to fee her, unless she has been married and has ceased to be married, in which case her presidential aspirations have so nearly abated, and her appreciation of metallic art, brought to bear on the American eagle, is quite normal. She will sit down in your bedroom—that is, if you are a lady guest—and talk to you for hours about the other lady guests, correcting their grammar and table manners and customs, and your own by inference, in a way that is very thoughtful of her considering how she is pressed for time. None the less, however, she is a good waitress, and if a slight pardoning smile betrays her consciousness that your chowder-plate has been three times to the depot, she brings it to you on the fourth journey without uttering a single one of the many things she might easily say under the circumstances.

Jewels of New York Women.

[New York Cor. Washington Post.]

New York women wear a great many jewels on appropriate occasions nowadays, and it is easily seen what stones are favorites with individual society leaders. Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt has magnificent gems, and is plainly partial to fine solitaire diamonds. Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts delights in rubies and yellow diamonds. Mrs. Walter Onslow used to wear pearls, but since fashion began to smile so warmly on green, has shown an affection for emeralds. Mrs. Ogden Mills prefers turquoises and sapphires. Mrs. Townsend Burton's favorite jewels are rubies of the deepest and reddest type. Mrs. August Belmont's weakness is for laces, and next them she is content with cut jet, which she prefers even to the diamonds which she sometimes wears. Mrs. Adele Grant is never over-anxious to wear jewels, but likes pearls and onyx better than other stones. Miss Eleanor Winslow takes to diamonds, and plenty of them at that. Mrs. M. Livingston often displays cat's-eye. Mrs. Orme Wilson likes a combination of pearls and turquoises, or black pearls, or strings of large, pear-shaped pearls. For the actresses, most of them change their gems to suit their whims. Clara Morris is fairly constant to rubies. Mrs. Langtry has a pet turquoise, Ada Rehan rather leans to sapphires, and Mme. Modjeska invests heavily in diamonds, the finest she can get, he does Lottie whenever she has a good year. There is Fannie Davenport, who reverses the popular opal superstition and carries two or three uncut opals for fair fortune always in her pocket. There is Bernhardt, who will never be without cut opals of the handsome and dangerous sorts valued by the Italian nobility about her dress or the toilet articles that she employs. There is Edith Kingdon Gould, who is accumulating jewels rapidly, and sets an especial value on the diamonds that she buys.

An Idol Smashed as Soon as Found.

[Omaha World.]

First lady (to new-found friend): You are the most fortunate of women. I did not believe such a perfet angel of a man could exist.

Second lady (mystefied): I beg pardon.

First lady: I refer to your husband's liberality in money matters. He handed you that money with as little hesitation as if he had been a lover instead of the husband of years.

Second lady (quietly): It's my money.

Balloons in High Altitudes.

[London Spectator.]

The recent attempt made by some French aeronauts to reach a great height above the earth has not been productive of any particular scientific results. The balloon in which the ascent was made reached an altitude of over 20,000 feet without the occupants of the car experiencing any ill effects except a tendency to faintness on the part of one of them. When about 12 years ago a similar attempt was made, and a height of 25,000 feet was reached, it was with fatal results to three out of the four aeronauts. The success of the present experiment is explained by the allegation that the difficulties due to the rarefaction of the atmosphere only begin at an altitude of 23,000 or 24,000 feet. This view seems supported by the fact that in the Himalayas and the Andes heights of about 20,000 feet have been on several occasions reached without any inconvenience. In such cases, however, the ascent has always been gradual. The ill effects experienced in baloons are possibly due to the suddenness of the change.

Under the Mistletoe.

[Washington Letter to Commercial Gazette.]

There was a funny scene at about 3 o'clock this afternoon on the avenue. Three elegantly-dressed ladies, each carrying a bunch of mistletoe, met three gentlemen, also bearing the evidences of high life and distinguished address.

As the two parties came against each other in the throng, two of the young ladies held their mistletoe over the head of their companion, and called to one of the gentlemen, a tall, fine-looking man, with gray mustache and imperial and heavily-caped Inverness ulster, saying: "Catch her now under the mistletoe." The gentleman immediately caught the pretty young lady under the mistletoe and kissed her right amid the staring crowd, and to the music of the laughter of her and his companions, and then the whole party went into Huyler's, laughing and merry-making, to get some cocoa and eat "butter-cup," the fashionable confection of the day.

It may serve to alleviate the seriousness of the situation to explain that the gentleman was a distinguished foreign Minister, and the young lady so publicly kissed was his pet daughter. The others in the party were equally well known, but the crowd, not understanding this, was in a condition of consternation and amazement.

Didn't Know Her.

[Arkansaw Traveler.]

"Why didn't you get up and give her your seat or permit me to give her mine?" said a woman to her husband. They had just got off a car. The woman's face expressed great anxiety of mind. "Why should we give her a seat?" the husband asked. "Just because she was so richly dressed, I suppose," he added. "Is it possible that you did not know her?" the wife exclaimed. "Of course; I am not supposed to know every well-dressed woman who comes along." "O, James, she is our cook; and I am afraid she will treasure up against us our lack of courtesy." "Why didn't you tell me?" the husband exclaimed. The woman did not reply, but, trembling violently, leaned heavily upon his arm.

DIED.

BUELLAN—In this city, January 14, 1888, Mrs. Maria Buellan, beloved mother of Mrs. A. H. Denker and Mrs. Henry Hammell, and sister of Louis and Casper Mesmer, a native of Saarbruck, Germany, aged 71 years.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, today (Monday) at 9:30 a.m., from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Denker, 807 South Main street, and also from the Catholic Cathedral, where high mass for the repose of her soul will be held.

Notary Public and Commissioner

For New York State and Arizona Territory. G. A. Dobinson, 25 N. Main street, upstairs.

A Chance to Get Fine Land and Water Without Cash.

Porter Land and Water Company, corner First and Spring, are offering a few tracts of their best land at San Fernando to parties desiring to plant half in citrus fruit trees, without requiring any cash for one year. Regular prices, plenty of pure, free water piped to each tract. Terms one, two and three years; 6 per cent. interest.

San Fernando defies competition in the citrus fruit lands. She defies anybody to find a scale-bug in the valley or a finer climate anywhere. It would pay to go and see the old mission, even if one does not want land. Recollect, water in quantities desired by purchasers guaranteed and shown to be already flowing.

Real Estate—Redondo Beach.

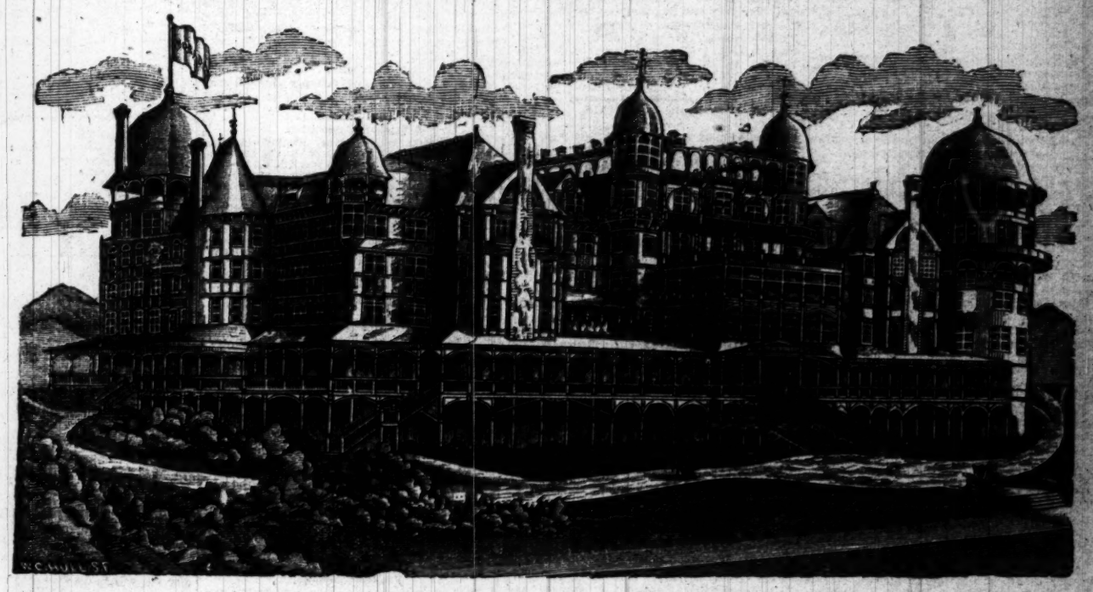
The Gem of the Continent!



Maps will be ready in a few days, and sale of lots to subscribers commenced, of which due notice will be given. Only a portion of the property will be sold this season and more than half of this portion has been subscribed for. The balance reserved until hotel and other improvements near completion. Parties wishing lots should get their signatures on the list at once. Wharf has been contracted for. Railroad from Inglewood to Redondo Beach now being built. Look out for important announcements to be made public in a few days relative to this place as a commercial harbor second to none on the coast. Parties who subscribe for lots now will soon realize their great value.

REDONDO BEACH.

SIXTEEN MILES SOUTHWEST OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES, IS without doubt the finest place on the continent for a seaside resort, and the enterprising company is doing all that ample means and broad ideas suggest to fully realize the grand results that nature has made possible. Two miles of water front aligned like a half-moon bay, of which the northern horn is occupied by a remarkably fine pebble beach, the southern part by the very best bathing beach anywhere to be enjoyed, while the middle portion is an abrupt shingled shore, bordering water so very deep that the largest ships may lie free from ground-swell within a stone's throw of land. Rising behind this frontage a peculiarly beautiful rolling land is backed by low but commanding hills, something less than a mile from shore and in amphitheatre form, so that the place is a panorama unto itself from every point of view. The higher grounds look back upon the city of Los Angeles and the Sierra Madre range, and the ocean view in the opposite direction is set between rocky headlands that hold it as in a frame for the outlook of the surroundings.

A salt-spring lake, half a mile in length, whose waters are much more dense than those of the sea, presents opportunities for quiet boating and peculiarly healthful bathing not paralleled at other places. The soils are remarkably fertile; the fresh water supply, to be piped throughout the tract, is pure and abundant, and the sub-soils are open and absorptive. So that beautifying of grounds is of easy accomplishment, and the healthfulness of the place is assured. A hotel of the most ample dimensions, picturesque effects and perfect appointments is to be built adjoining the beach, on a site terraced to the water-front promenade, and flanked by a park which extends to the bathing beach on one hand and on the other to the IRON PIER, costing over $100,000, reaching into deep water and arranged for landing of boats of every description, from the mosquito yacht to the trans-ocean clipper.

THE CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY—Grounds for the accommodation of the Chautauqua Assembly of Southern California have been set aside, and here the management are about to build an amphitheatre and other permanent structures.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

All of the churches were well attended yesterday.

There was no light on the pile of bricks at the corner of Spring and First streets last night.

Two of the trains that were delayed on the Santa Fé will come in by the Southern Pacific today.

Between 55 and 60 carloads of excursionists are expected to arrive by the Southern Pacific tomorrow.

The Tenth-street Hotel will soon begin to take shape, as the managers are pushing it for all that is out.

The Second-street cable broke Saturday night, but the break was repaired and the road in operation yesterday.

The City Council will convene this morning at 10 o'clock, when the police muddle will probably be disposed of.

During the early part of this week over 1500 excursionists will arrive from the East over the Southern Pacific line.

People who arrived in this city from the north yesterday reported a heavy snowstorm in the mountains Friday night.

Base-ball seems to have died a natural death in this city. The gentlemen who were putting up money for the sport have become tired.

Each one of the Democratic candidates for the office of Chief of Police was confident last night that he would be the Council's choice today.

If the Chief of Police fight does not consume the whole of today, the board will probably dispose of the City Hall-St. Vincent "swap" scheme.

Mrs. A. P. Crawford died at her residence, on Bunker Hill avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, between 1 and 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

The thief who broke into a store a few nights ago, and when he did not find a cent wrote on a card, "Send for the Chief of Police," has not yet been captured.

One or two pistol shots were heard at the corner of Olive and Third streets yesterday morning about 2 o'clock. Nothing could be learned about it at the police station.

The fire department is growing. The wife of Engineer Mike Kerns of engine No. 3 yesterday presented her husband with a 10-pound boy. Mother and child are doing well.

No policeman has as yet been assigned to duty on the Sonoratown beat from 4 a.m. to 12 m. This is an important beat and should be attended to at once. It will not do to leave it unprotected.

J. Thompson did not run at the Sixth-street base-ball grounds yesterday. Mr. Thompson is not running at the present time, and says his name has been used by the sports without his authority.

The revival meetings at the First Congregational Church yesterday afternoon and last evening, conducted by Rev. E. Payson Hammond, were well attended. The children's service was especially interesting.

A house in course of being moved from one point to another, occupied the intersection of Hill and Tenth streets all day yesterday, blocking travel at this point, to the great inconvenience of the residents of the vicinity.

Constable Martin Aguirre has made up his mind to arrest all of the vags and hard-looking citizens in the city. He has an idea that they are at the bottom of the most of the robberies that have occurred of late.

Frank Martin, one of the men who is supposed to be connected with the cigar robbery at Joe Bayer's, was seen by Officer Auble walking up Main street Saturday night, and that officer promptly placed him in the cooler to answer to the charge, which he admitted.

Two drunks fell over the street guard into the foundation at the corner of Second and Spring streets late Saturday night. The police took them out and they were found to be unhurt. A bottle which went down in the awful crash was also taken out whole and full.

By special order No. 5, issued from army headquarters in this city, a furlough for four months will be granted Sergt. James Ellis, Troop L, Tenth Cavalry, to take effect after his reenlistment. A furlough for three months will also be granted Private John Bowman, Troop H, Fourth Cavalry.

The fire alarm turned in last night at 9 o'clock from box 25, at the Southern Pacific passenger depot, was caused by the burning of a shed in the yards. The blaze was extinguished before the arrival of the engines by turning on the company's hose. The damage was nominal.

The first annual shooting match of the Los Angeles Gun and Rod Club was had at Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon. E. Unger won the championship and Eugene Maxwell the gold medal. The club has only been organized about six months, but is one of the most flourishing organizations of the kind in the State.

A man named Thomas O'Brien was captured Saturday night on Alameda street doing the thug act, with a man whom he had held up. He was going through the poor fellow's pockets when an officer arrived. He brought O'Brien and his victim to the police station, where the latter gave his name as Crane.

The Democratic Councilmen were still quarrelling among themselves about the Chief of Police yesterday. They seemed to be divided into three factions. The Henry King faction, the T. J. Cuddy faction and the Enall Harris faction. King was not brought into the fight until a few days ago, but he is fast gaining in strength, and his backers believe he will be elected.

Louis Garofe, a Bosque who keeps a boarding-house on New High street, cut a man who rooms in his house, named Louis DeGrazier, for improper intimacy with his wife. He was brought to the station, and the woman and DeGrazier were booked as witnesses. Garofe says he fully intended to kill DeGrazier, and that it was not his fault that he did not succeed. The woman denies her husband's story.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. J. M. Donohue left for San Francisco yesterday.

Dr. J. E. Haynes left for Chicago via the Southern Pacific last night.

Steve Arthur, proprietor of the Ogle House at Fresno, is at the St. Elmo.

Rev. C. H. Wenty, pastor of the Unitarian Church of Oakland, left for his home yesterday.

ALMOST A WAR.

The McLaughlin and Burlingame Factions.

Readers of THE TIMES are acquainted with the trouble that has existed between E. C. Burlingame and James McLaughlin. McLaughlin had a dispute with Burlingame about a handcar that he built for the contractor a few months ago, and Burlingame's arrest followed. At the trial it was proved that McLaughlin got out the wrong kind of a complaint, as it was not proven that Burlingame really stole the car, but that he ordered it built and then took possession without paying for it. Instead of bringing a civil suit against Burlingame, after the criminal case was disposed of, he organized a little army of 23 men, and ordered them to charge on Burlingame's camp an capture the car, by hook or by crook. The l. a. was ordered to take four horses along, as they might need the horses in case they were lucky enough to capture the car. The army and horses started out late Friday afternoon, and when they neared the camp, Mr. Berry, who is acting as foreman for Burlingame, saw the army coming, and suspected that something wrong was in the wind, so he called his men together. Strange to say, his men sized up with McLaughlin's army, and as both gangs were ready and able to do good rough-and-tumble fighting it was easily seen that several bloody noses would be piled up, in case McLaughlin's men were determined to capture the car. Berry also got out a heavy team of horses, and while McLaughlin was hooking onto the car at one end, he threw a chain over the other, and soon a tug of war that was most beautiful to behold, was under headway. The horses pulled against each other with all their might, the men shouted and howled, and the two captains of the mighty hosts swore for all that was out. At the expiration of 10 minutes Berry's horses got away with the works. When McLaughlin noticed how things were going, he became so angry that he grabbed a big sledge-hammer and made a dive for the car. "If I can't have the d—n thing, you can't," said McLaughlin, and he swung the hammer around his head several times and brought it down with a crash. Berry was watching McLaughlin's movements and jumped in to protect the car. He received a portion of the blow on the side of his head, and was quite badly wounded. Knives, picks and clubs were soon flying in the air at a lively rate, but the parties did not clash and the fight did not take place. The car remained in Burlingame's camp, but the end is not yet.

FALSE ALARMS.

Officers Sent For When They Are Not Wanted—A Kick.

About 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning a telephone message was received at the police station stating that an officer was wanted at Bob Eckert's saloon, on Court street, immediately. Sergt. Jeffries and Officer Lee at once went to the place, where they found a large number of both men and women drinking and raising considerable disturbance. The man who had caused the trouble had been got off to his room upstairs, and the proprietor of the place refused to let the officers arrest him. The police claim that this thing of calling for officers by telephone is getting to be quite a nuisance. Hardly a night passes without from one to half a dozen calls being received from saloons and houses of prostitution, stating that a row is in progress, and asking that an officer be dispatched at once. A mounted man is generally sent out, and in nine cases out of ten by the time he reaches the place the row has been settled, and the officer is sent back to the station. The department thinks that it might be a good thing to arrest the proprietor once in a while, just to relieve the monotony.

Pullman Passengers.

The following Pullman passengers left yesterday on the 1:30 p.m. train going north: Mr. French, Miss Bartholomew, Mr. Van Arsdale, Mrs. W. G. Miller, Dr. Joseph Holt, Mr. Thomson, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Teitgun, Dr. Haynes, C. R. Clow, W. H. Milliken, Mr. Eagleson, Mr. Inglebright, E. Meyer, Mrs. Barron, Mr. Whitney, Mrs. B. Morris, Carleton Newman, J. M. Donohue, Rev. C. H. Wentz, Mr. Buxton, A. R. Kenney, W. J. Anthony.

The following left by the 8:05 train: John Lloyd, Mr. Speck, Mr. Wendroth, Mrs. Ross, S. Belchley.

Scarcity of Coal at San Diego.

[San Diego Sun.]

Anxious inquirers for coal were told yesterday afternoon at the office of the San Diego Coal Company that they could not take any orders yet for that necessary article, but that as soon as they could get a ship now in the harbor up to the dock and commence to unload there would be plenty for all at their yards at the foot of Fifth street. Persons who must have a supply, however, can get it by the sackful at the passenger depot at the foot of D street. There are several carloads there on a sidetrack, and the purchaser must take an express wagon along to haul it away. The price asked is $1 per sack, with 5 cents added for each one of the pieces of burlap. These sacks ostensibly hold 100 pounds, but the dealers seem to think there is no time like the present, and the consumer pays his money for hardly more than 75 pounds to the sack. By the time he gets it to his domicile and pays the expressage, his fuel costs him in the neighborhood of $30 per ton, but the majority of people make a virture of necessity and do not complain at the extortion, no doubt thinking themselves lucky to get it at any price.

Not "Peculiar."

[Ontario Record.]

The LOS ANGELES TIMES Annual was a paper that all Southern California might be proud of, and the amount of valuable matter it contained would do credit to any metropolitan daily. One thing, however, was peculiar, claiming to represent all Southern California, its references to San Bernardino county were mostly incidental. Riverside got five lines; Ontario not even that amount. THE TIMES has a very large circulation all over the county, and its list here is an excellent one. Such neglect of the best fruit county in the State is inexcusable, and not easily accounted for.

[The editor of the Record will permit us to remind him that he is in error in the above. San Bernardino county received elaborate mention in the Annual Trade Number (page 15) to the extent of a column and a half.—ED. TIMES.]

A Home-made Water Supply.

[Ventura Free Press.]

A Santa Barbara county farmer has solved the water-supply problem for domestic and stock purposes. He figured out the fact that 100 feet surface, with an average annual rainfall of 24 inches, would gather 148,740 gallons, or 400 gallons a day for the whole year. His next step was to build a reservoir of sufficient capacity to hold that amount of water, which was lined with brick and well plastered with cement, in one corner of which was a simple, unplastered brick wall, forming a well. This done, he guttered his roof surface and gathered the water from his buildings into the reservoir. From there it filters through the unplastered brick wall into his well, furnishing an abundant supply of nice, pure water for the whole year.

Telegraph Magnates at San Diego.

[Union, Jan. 14.]

Frank Jaynes, the genial Pacific Coast manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and Charles S. Diehl, the efficient Pacific Coast agent of the Western Associated Press, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and will probably remain till Monday. Mr. Diehl represents the greatest collector and distributor of news in the world, and Mr. Jaynes the most colossal vehicle for its collection and distribution. Both are interested in perfecting the San Diego service of the organizations they represent, and important results tending in this direction will follow their visit to San Diego.

For Sale—Fruit and ornamental trees at Bellevue Nursery, Los Angeles, corner of Jefferson and Grand avenue. Main and Jefferson-street cars pass the nursery. Tree depot, 100 feet east of Main on Second street. Milton Thomas.

Once in a Lifetime

You have such a chance to get five-acre tracts six miles from my office. Easy payments; improved with trees, vines and alfalfa. In 9 to 12 a.m. 204½ South Spring street. Chas. Victor Hall.

Parties contemplating the planting of fruit or ornamental trees during the season will do well to call at No. 10 N. Main street and inspect the immense stock of all classes of trees and plants offered for sale by the Fresno Nurseries; without doubt as complete a stock as there is in the State.

For barrains in houses and lots see W. P. McIntosh's advertisement, on another page.

Important to Chautauquans.

Redondo Beach, the home of the Chautauqua Assembly, though not yet on the market, has had an unprecedented subscription for lots. The company places only half of the lots now laid out on the market. Over 1700 have been taken, leaving only a few unsubscribed for. It is very important to all Chautauquans who desire lots at Redondo that they at once place their names on the lists and avail themselves of special prices and choice locations near the campus. These can be had by at once calling on the superintendent of instruction, S. J. Fleming, at the office of the company, corner Main and Court streets.

Central Park.

This beautiful park on Central avenue is now being improved and beautified, and when the improvements are completed it will be one of the finest in the State. It is covered with magnificent pepper and other shade trees, and is being laid out with beautiful walks, drives and flower plots. It is also the intention of the owners to build a fine conservatory, and make all free to the public. No liquor is to be allowed to be sold in or around the park. Surrounding the park has been laid out a number of beautiful residence lots, which are offered for sale at the office of Grant, Ames & Co., 4 West First street.

A Valuable Publication.

The "Guide to California" has been issued annually for some years past by the reliable excursion agents, A. Phillips & Co., 134 North Main street. They have offices in Boston, Chicago and San Francisco. By a system of canvassing and mailing, their "Guide to California" has been placed in the hands of many prospective comers to this State. It has been valuable both to the visitor and to our country. The former edition has been 25,000, but so large has been the demand that the yearly issue will be increased to 40,000. Ten thousand will be printed and mailed each three months, beginning with April next. Each town in Southern California will be described and the prominent points of interest set forth. It is an excellent medium through which our reliable towns and tracts can be presented in attractive form to those who contemplate making homes in our enjoyable climate. The preparation of the coming numbers is in the hands of G. W. Arbuckle, which is assurance that the work will be well done.

Messrs. M. A. Newmark & Co. have accepted the agency and are now introducing California's most celebrated "pack" of canned fruits—the Coleman Flag Brand.

GRAND EXCURSION

—TO—

SANTA ANA

The Beautiful—the loveliest of all places.

GRAND CREDIT AUCTION SAL

Of 552 acres of improved and unimproved lands and house, barns, outbuildings, and 100 head of cattle, on

TUESDAY, JAN'Y 17, 188

Five hundred and fifty-two acres of the Goodwin Ranch have been subdivided into 5, 10, 20 and 60-acre tracts. This exceptionally choice piece of land is situated five miles west of Santa Ana, in one of the most beautiful and productive valleys in the State. Santa Ana Valley is 20 by 30 miles in area, and contains 300,000 acres of fertile and wonderfully productive land. All the products of temperate and semi-tropical regions are here successfully cultivated. This particular piece of land offers extraordinary inducements to home and land seekers, as well as speculators, and is especially adapted for raising corn, grain, potatoes, apples, alfalfa, stock raising, also very choice for gardening lands. This soil will produce 100 bushels of corn per acre without irrigation, 700 sacks of onions per acre, and over 200 sacks of potatoes—Better known as the famous peat lands of the Rancho Los Bolsas. Artesian water can be had at a depth of 125 feet, and there are four large artesian flowing wells on the land. This tract lays in close proximity to Santa Ana, and, as everyone knows, Santa Ana is no outside town, but is a growing, thriving, substantial city of 5000 inhabitants, with every indication of reaching 10,000 in three years. Its present growth is exciting the wonder and admiration of all Southern California. It is located on the Southern Pacific Railroad at its junction with the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe lines, and has two steam motor street railroads now under construction.

Train leaves Los Angeles, at San Fernando and Commercial streets, S. P. R. R. Depot, at 9 o'clock a.m. Leaves Santa Ana returning at 4:30 p.m. A band of music accompanies the excursion. Free lunch. Free carriage ride to all excursionists. Fare, round trip, $1.00.

TERMS OF SALE:—One-fourth cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years at 10 per cent. interest on deferred payments.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

This has been demonstrated in thousands of cases treated by

DR. WILLIAMS,

With his new system of Medicated Inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever adopted has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh, Throat Diseases, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE.

Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for consultation and examination, but if impossible to do so can write for a copy of my Medical Treatise, containing a list of questions. Address,
